

FUNDRAISER IDEAS

Ideas	Information
Read -a- Thon	This school fundraising idea might be the favorite of your teachers and parents, as it encourages children to read for pleasure. Students obtain pledges from teachers, family members, or parents for the number of pages or books they can read, and then they log the hours. A read-a-thon is also a comparatively easier way to fundraise for your school.
Walk-a-Thon	A walk-a-thon is a fundraising event where people walk a set distance to raise money for a cause. It's also known as a charity walk or walking marathon <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Participants walk a set distance or course• Donors pledge to donate a certain amount of money for each mile or lap walked• Participants collect donations from donors
Movie Night at School	The movie night school fundraising idea can be used to fundraise in elementary schools, middle schools, and colleges. Organize a viewing of an appropriate age movie in gym. Charge the parents for entry. Have snacks available for purchase. This is indeed a fun way to raise money for your school while involving students and their families.
Principal Challenge	Get your principal on board to complete a challenge (e.g. dye their hair a fun color or wear a fun hat) if a fundraising goal is met. Students can either vote for their favorite idea by donating or simply donate to reach the fundraising goal as soon as possible.
Battle of the Bands	A very cool fundraising idea for schools involves getting students to join in a musical competition. Music is a hobby for many students. Organize a friendly band battle with our

	ILTexas Schools. Charge the friends and family who come to see the show.
Trivia Competition	Think of fun but challenging questions, either about ILTexas and its history or pertaining to general knowledge. Invite people who are connected to the school and set a date for the competition. In order to raise money, you can charge a small entrance fee, sell food and refreshments, or do both to cover your trivia night cost. Select good questions, enlist a great host, and be careful to select a reasonable time and date.
Basketball Fundraiser	A basketball free throws fundraiser, also known as a shoot-a-thon, is a basketball event where participants ask for donations for each made free throw.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity. Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible state or local agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/ad-3027.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by: 1. mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights 1400 Independence Avenue, SW Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; or 2. fax: (833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442; or 3. email: Program.Intake@usda.gov This institution is an equal opportunity provider