Dear Applicant:

Enclosed is your OFFICIAL GREATER UTICA SPORTS HALL OF FAME SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION AND RICHARD D'ALESSANDRO SCHOLARSHIP.

We suggest you read it carefully and follow the directions in order to have it processed by the Board. We STRESS that you mail the completed application by the due date and submit any documents that are required. Failure to do this will impede the process and may result in denying your application.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicant must...

- 1) Be a high school senior athlete in good standing
- 2) Enroll in an accredited College or Trade School
- 3) Termination of Scholarship Based on Lack of Integrity –

If you are awarded a scholarship by the Hall of Fame, or the D'ALESSANDRO family your right to retain that scholarship is conditioned on your honesty and integrity. Thus, if you reveal, through objective actions, a lack of honesty or integrity, your scholarship may be terminated. The following are some examples of actions that the Hall feels indicate a lack of integrity and honesty, but these are not the only actions that could indicate a lack of integrity and honesty: conviction of a crime, termination from any employment or by volunteer position for cause; and formal discipline by an educational institution for cheating or disciplinary infractions. If you become the subject of any of these actions or similar actions, you will be obligated to reimburse the Hall for the full value of the scholarship benefits paid on your behalf.

CRITERIA

The criteria that is defined by the Hall:

- 1) Student Cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA)
- 2) Timeliness
- 3) School Activities
- 4) Community Activities
