Urban-Suburban Celebrates 60 Years

As the Urban-Suburban Interdistrict Transfer Program celebrates its 60th Anniversary in 2025, Pittsford Central School District honors this milestone and its involvement and success with the Urban-Suburban program since 1967.

The Urban-Suburban Interdistrict Transfer Program, coordinated by the Monroe 1 Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES), was established in 1965 by New York State law and the regulations of the State Education Department with a purpose to "voluntarily decrease racial isolation, deconcentrate poverty and enhance opportunities for students in the Rochester City School District and in the suburban districts of the Greater Rochester Area."

Since 1967 when Pittsford Central School District became a part of the Urban-Suburban program, generations of students have benefited from it, both the students who have been a part of the program, and the Pittsford School District community.

As one of Monroe County's early adapters to the program, Pittsford Schools invited 50 elementary and 50 secondary students from the city of Rochester to participate in its 1967 summer school program, and then welcomed 100 Urban-Suburban students to its classrooms that fall. Since that time, thousands of Urban-Suburban students have been part of Pittsford Schools' rich legacy. This school year, Pittsford has 99 students in the Urban Suburban program (31 elementary, 30 middle, 38 high school).

"Pittsford Schools is honored to have been a part of Urban-Suburban for nearly 58 years," said Superintendent Michael Pero. "When students in the Urban-Suburban program come to Pittsford Schools, they become part of our community and are PCSD students, graduates and alums. I don't take this lightly and value and appreciate each family that entrusts their child's education to us," he said.

Join Pittsford Schools in celebrating Urban-Suburban's 60th Anniversary and in its gratitude to the generations of families and students who have participated in the program, as this partnership has made a tremendous impact on the Pittsford School District community.

Urban-Suburban invites community members to its 60th Anniversary Gala dinner and celebration on Thursday, March 20 from 5:30 – 8 p.m. at the Memorial Art Gallery. Tickets are on sale now: https://givebutter.com/U-S-60th-Event

Two Pittsford Students Named Among Top Teen Scientists in the Nation

Emily Xinxin Yu

Matthew Xie

The Society for Science has named Pittsford students Emily Xinxin Yu (MHS) and Matthew Xie (SHS) among the top 300 scholars in the 2025 Regeneron Science Talent Search, the nation's oldest and most prestigious science and math competition for high school seniors. They were selected from nearly 2,500 entrants from 795 high schools across 48 states, American Samoa, Guam, Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico and 14 other countries. Regeneron Scholars, and their schools, are awarded $2,000 each.

Yu and Xie were chosen based on a number of factors, including their outstanding research, leadership skills, community involvement, commitment to academics, creativity in asking scientific questions, and exceptional promise as STEM leaders that was demonstrated through the submission of their original, independent research projects, essays and recommendations.

Emily Xinxin Yu's research project is titled "Uncovering Unique Behavioral Patterns in Autistic Children Through Multimodal Machine Learning Analysis of Eye-Hand Coordination." It aims to answer when, where, and why behavioral differences occur between autistic and typically-developing individuals, using data-driven quantitative analysis to provide additional resources for intervention. In her project, Yu analyzed eye-hand coordination and behavioral patterns in autistic individuals using a Machine Learning approach. "Specifically, I employed a novel method that translates eye movements to hand movements with a Sequence-to-Sequence deep neural network (used in machine translation) taking the perspective of viewing the two modalities as "languages" that can be translated from one to another," she explained. She also leveraged an attention-based model that assigns weights to eye fixations, so that fixations considered more important are weighted more heavily. These fixations can indicate important moments of eye-hand coordination and thus be further analyzed to determine the corresponding behavioral patterns. "By identifying an autistic individual's sensory processing behavior, more personalized support and intervention can be offered," said Yu.

Matthew Xie's project focused on "Predicting the Risk of Asthma Development in Youth Using Machine Learning Models."

Asthma is a chronic illness disproportionately affecting 4.7 million children in the U.S. "Since asthma has no cure, the best way to reduce the prevalence of asthma is to prevent the initial onset that usually occurs during childhood," said Xie. By utilizing publicly available national health survey data, Xie successfully built machine learning models to predict the risk of asthma in youth with high accuracy while also identifying potentially important risk factors associated with increased risk of asthma in youth. "My results may provide insight into other unknown causes of asthma so that early screening and preventative measures can be implemented to reduce asthma among youth," said Xie.

Jason Simoni Appointed Principal of Barker Road Middle School

Jason Simoni

On February 25, 2025, the Pittsford Schools' Board of Education appointed Jason Simoni as principal of Barker Road Middle School, with a start date of March 26, 2025.

"Mr. Simoni brings a deep and varied background to this position. He has over 20 years of experience in secondary education in public and private settings," said Michael Pero, Superintendent of Schools.

Most recently, Simoni served as the assistant principal at Webster's Willink Middle School where he was responsible for students' academic, social-emotional and behavioral supports across three grade levels. Prior to serving in this capacity, he was the principal at Bishop Kearney High School in Rochester. In this role, he created a strategic planning committee which included administrators, faculty and parents who developed short- and long-term improvement plans for the school.

Simoni earned a bachelor's degree in social studies education from Ithaca College, a master's degree in education from National Louis University (Sarasota, Florida), and his Educational Doctorate degree from St. John Fisher University. He is also a member of the Kappa Delta Pi Honor Society.

Capital Project Construction is Beginning – Follow Updates and Stay Informed

As the Capital Project construction gets underway, a document with frequently asked questions (FAQ) has been developed to support families and staff. Learn about safety precautions, parking expectations, construction phases and more. The FAQ is a living document, so while the project continues and new questions about the project come up, please check the FAQ posted on the District website at: www.pittsfordschools.org/capitalprojectfaq.

Pittsford Students Recognized with Scholastic Awards for Art and Writing

Congratulations to the Pittsford Mendon and Sutherland High School students who won 2025 Scholastic Art and Writing Awards! The Scholastic Awards began in 1923 and are administered by the Alliance for Young Artists and Writers in New York City. This year's entrants were judged by the faculty of Alfred University who work in the arts field. Awards include Honorable Mention, Silver Key and Gold Key. Gold Key winners advance to the national competition. To enter the competition, students selected and digitally submitted images of their art/writing and related paperwork.

Check the "News & Announcements" section on the homepage of the District's website (www.pittsfordschools.org) for the most up-to-date information.

Notice of Fire Inspection

Notice is hereby given that the annual inspection of the buildings of the Pittsford Central School District for fire hazards which might endanger the lives of students, teachers and employees therein, has been completed and the report thereof is available at the Office of Operations, Maintenance & Security, 100 Mendon Center Road, for inspection by all interested persons.

Leadership Retirements

Jeff Cimmerer, Ed.D.

Chief Information Officer (CIO) Jeff Cimmerer, Ed.D., will retire June 30, 2025, after 26 years with Pittsford Schools. As Chief information Officer for the past ten years, he was responsible for data management and analytic services, strategic planning, and all facets of cybersecurity, while also holding the title of District Privacy Officer. As CIO, he developed incident response and business continuity plans and helped plan strategic initiatives. "Jeff led the way for trusted cyber security systems and services at Pittsford Schools and was a strategic thinker who stayed ahead of the curve when it came to methods of data analytics, reporting, and security," said Superintendent Michael Pero. Cimmerer began his work with Pittsford Schools as the Middle School Library Media Specialist in1999. In 2002, Cimmerer became Director of Technology, a position he held for 12 years before becoming the Chief Information Officer in 2014. While Director of Technology, he supervised a department of 21 staff members and facilitated the Technology Management Committee that focused on integrating technology into instruction. In this position, he managed capital projects including: fiber optics, voice over IP phones, student information system installation, video streaming, cabling upgrades, and the creation of a network operation center. He also created a disaster recovery plan, assisted with curriculum writing and technology integration into instruction and led the 1:1 laptop initiative for teachers, online/blended learning, and project-based learning.

Dwayne Cerbone

Dwayne Cerbone will retire from Pittsford Schools on June 30, 2025, after serving as Pittsford District Teachers Association (PDTA) President for the past 8 years and as a Pittsford high school math teacher for the past 24 years. As president of the PDTA, Cerbone has represented approximately 800 teachers, paraprofessionals, nurses, tutors and auxiliary staff.

"He is a leader who is recognized for his dedication to continuous improvement through steadfast collaboration with District and community leaders," said Superintendent Michael Pero. In his role as PDTA President, Cerbone consistently implemented ethical practices to advocate and mediate challenging personnel interests. He also streamlined processes to improve productivity while strategically leveraging various modes of communication. As a high school math teacher, Cerbone planned and delivered daily lessons for students of varied abilities that promoted personal development and resulted in notably high academic achievement rates. He is also the lead developer of a blended/online course, "Decision Making with Mathematics," that challenges students to manage real-life scenarios through the power of algebra, probability, statistics and data analysis.

2025-2026 Budget Guidelines

Developed by the District Planning Team and approved by the Board of Education

Develop a student-based budget focused on:

- Implementation of rigorous, engaging, equitable, and authentic curriculum, instruction, assessments, and resources.
- Maintain excellence while supporting responsive and relevant offerings.
- Providing experiences, both curricular and extracurricular, that support the varied interests and abilities of the whole child.
- Social emotional learning and mental health supports.
- Supporting diverse academic, social, emotional, and mental health needs.

Provide high quality professional development centered on:

- Tiered supports addressing the range of learners in classroom.
- Curriculum, assessment, grading and instructional practices.
- Equity and Inclusion practices aligned with District goals.
- Social emotionl, wellness, and mental health topics.
- Continuous improvement for instructional and non-instructional staff members.

Balance the investment in education with sensitivity to limited community resources by:

- Balancing community expectations for services and programs, with the need to be cognizant of changes in property values, income levels, new state/federal tax laws, and other economic uncertainties.
- Engaging in thoughtful short- and long-range financial planning.
- Collaborating with local partners/Districts to share services.
- Sustaining transportation reserve for transition to electric buses/ vehicles.
- Planning for the cessation of Federal funds and impact of minimum wage increases.
- Engaging legislators to increase NYS foundation aid.
- Recruiting, hiring, and retaining diverse employees of the highest caliber.
- Seeking cost efficiencies to further mitigate the burdensome and fiscal impact of underfunded and unfunded mandates.

Maintain fiscal stability now and into the future through:

- Financially prudent and sustainable reserve accounts.
- Review and adjust staffing to align with revenue sources.
- Partnerships, shared services, audits.
- Protecting and maintaining our Aa1 bond rating.
- Protecting the community's investment in facilities and infrastructure.
- Advocacy with legislators relative to appropriate levels of funding.
- Implementing research-based sustainability practices.

Meet legal mandates and contractual obligations.

Private & Parochial Transportation Requests Due April 1, 2025

Residents whose children plan to use Pittsford Central School District's transportation next year for private or parochial school attendance are required by the State Education Department to file a Private & Parochial Transportation Request Form with the District by April 1, 2025, in order to receive transportation services. Dual Location/Daycare forms are also due by April 1.

Private & Parochial Transportation Request Forms are available online at www.pittsfordschools.org in the Parent Center under Transportation.

Pittsford Students Play Key Role in Rochester Philharmonic Youth Orchestra

More than a third of the 2024-25 Rochester Philharmonic Youth Orchestra (RPYO) is comprised of talented students from Pittsford Central School District who were selected to perform as part of this prestigious group. Of the 83 orchestra members, 18 come from Mendon High School and 13 come from Sutherland High School – making up roughly 37% of the membership.

In February 2025, the RPYO embarked on a week-long tour, beginning with a performance at the iconic Boston Symphony Hall, followed by a concert at Église Saint-Jean-Baptiste in downtown Montreal. For concert and ticket information, visit https://rpyo.org/events.

Congratulations to Pittsford's 31 RPYO Students!

Mendon High School:

Matthew Belous (Violin), Leixi Chen (Violin), Ally Foley (Trumpet), Jiahn Han (Cello), Jiwoo Han (Oboe), Will Harrington (Percussion), Cailey Huang (Violin), Karthik Jaligama (Viola), Vasu Jaligama (Violin), Tianze Qiu (Viola), Timothy Seo (Violin, RPYO Concerto Competition Winner), Hannah Shim (Cello), Elise Spurling (Violin), Jemma Wallis (Clarinet), Eva Yip (Viola), Evan Yip (Violin), Tristan Zhang (Oboe), Selina Zhuo (Violin)

Sutherland High School:

Claire Chen (Violin), Friana Engineer (Violin), Henry Gagnier (Cello), Sophie Gagnier (Viola), Jason Hsu (Violin), George Huang (Violin), Nevaeh Joseph (Violin), Helena Lu (Violin), Ryan Shaffer (Violin), Michael Shi (Clarinet), Kimberly Wang (Oboe), Camryn Wlostowski (Flute/Piccolo), Emma Zhang (Violin)

Under the leadership of Assistant Conductor Jherrard Hardeman and in partnership with the Eastman Community Music School, the RPYO is reaching new heights. RPYO students now benefit from the many resources of Eastman, including access to the Eastman School of Music and the renowned Sibley Music Library. Additionally, they receive complimentary tickets to nearly all RPO performances and exclusive coaching sessions with RPO musicians.

Annual Charitable Sporting Events Raise $46,000 for Local Organizations

The Pittsford community once again demonstrated its unwavering commitment to charitable causes through two annual student athletic fundraisers: the 24th Annual Rainbow Classic and the 15th Annual Pink the Rink. These events not only showcased competitive sportsmanship but also raised significant funds for local organizations dedicated to health and wellness.questions or problems occur.

Your cooperation is appreciated as we strive to foster an environment that respects and values the rich diversity of our community and schools.

24th Annual Rainbow Classic Raises $31,000 for Golisano Children's Hospital

Pittsford Schools' 24th Annual Rainbow Classic basketball games were held on December 20, 2024, at the University of Rochester Palestra. This year's event raised an impressive $31,000 in support of Golisano Children's Hospital.

The night featured a doubleheader between Pittsford Mendon and Pittsford Sutherland's varsity basketball teams. In the girls' game, Mendon triumphed with a 48-36 win over Sutherland, while the boys' matchup saw the Sutherland Knights claim a 55-46 victory over Mendon. During the event, Pittsford's NYSPHSAA Fall 2024 Champions were recognized, including Mendon Girls Soccer, Sutherland Girls Volleyball, and Sutherland Cross Country runner Will Tempest.

Since its inception in 2001, the Rainbow Classic has raised over $600,000 for Golisano Children's Hospital. The funds have supported various hospital programs, including the Pediatric Intensive Care Unit, the Child and Adolescent Eating Disorder Program, and the Golisano Pediatric Behavioral Health and Wellness Center. This year's proceeds will help fund the Mobile Care Unit, which will provide healthcare services to families unable to travel to the hospital. The unit is expected to launch in December 2025.

Established in memory of Park Road Elementary student Katelyn Pasley, the Rainbow Classic later expanded to honor the memory of 2002 Sutherland High School graduate Ryan McCluski. Today, it stands as a tribute to many Pittsford students, uniting the community in remembrance and philanthropy.

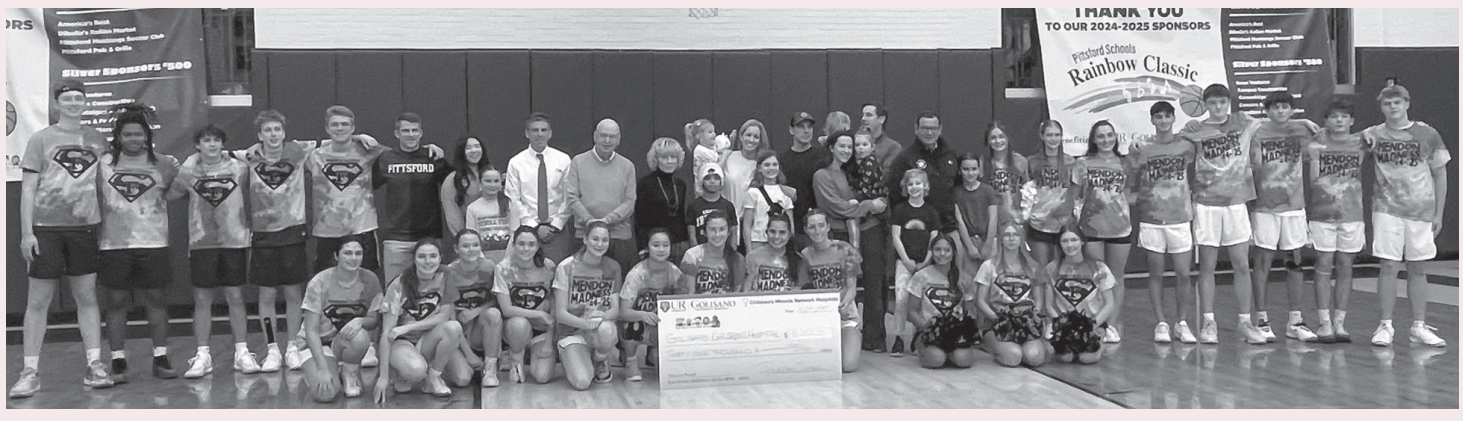

15th Annual Pink the Rink Raises $15,000 for Breast Cancer Coalition of Rochester

The spirit of giving continued with the 15th Annual Pink the Rink hockey games held on February 1, 2025. Facing off against the Victor Blue Devils, the varsity Panthers secured a dominant 5-0 victory. Both teams donned pink as a symbol of solidarity in the fight against breast cancer.

Since its inception in 2010, Pink the Rink has raised over $120,000 for the Breast Cancer Coalition of Rochester. The funds are generated through corporate sponsorships, ticket sales, T-shirt sales, Chuck-A-Puck contests, honor sign sponsorships, and game-day collections.

This beloved tradition was founded by Celeste Frohm, a dedicated Friends of Pittsford Hockey Board Member, who was inspired by a similar event at the State University of New York at Fredonia. Her vision has led to an enduring community event that brings together players, families, and fans for a meaningful cause.

18 Pittsford High School Students Named State Qualifiers in DECA Competition

Congratulations to Pittsford's 12 Mendon High School students and six Sutherland High School students who were named state-qualifiers at the DECA Region-10 Competition on December 17, 2024, at RIT. They competed among 950 students from across Monroe County to showcase their business skills by presenting creative strategies to solve real-world business problems. State qualifiers will compete in March for the chance to go to Nationals in Orlando, Florida.
