FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORSYTH COUNTY SCHOOLS RECOGNIZED FOR ADVANCED PLACEMENT HONORS

Cumming, GEORGIA – Forsyth County Schools is proud to announce that its high schools have been recognized as 2025 AP Honor Schools by the Georgia Department of Education, earning distinctions in multiple categories based on the performance of students in 2024 Advanced Placement (AP) courses and exams. Each year, the AP Honor Schools program recognizes high schools for their commitment to academic excellence and student success in rigorous AP coursework. The 2025 honors are awarded in eight categories, celebrating schools that expand access to AP courses and support students in achieving college-level academic success.

“These recognitions reflect the dedication of our students, teachers, and administrators to academic excellence,” said Superintendent Mitch Young. “We are committed to providing rigorous educational opportunities that prepare students for college and career success. This achievement is a testament to the hard work and perseverance of our entire school community.”

The honors received by Forsyth County Schools are listed in the attached charts.

Forsyth County Schools remains dedicated to fostering a culture of high expectations and achievement, ensuring that all students have access to advanced learning opportunities that pave the way for their future endeavors.
