Madeira Theatre Arts Presents *Mean Girls, High School Version

Madeira Theatre Arts presents its spring musical Mean Girls, High School Version April 10 - 12 in Madeira High School's (MHS) Medert Auditorium.

The show features Cady Heron (Molly Grontkowski) who grew up on an African savanna. When she moves to suburban Illinois she isn't prepared for the wild and vicious ways of her strange new home. Cady tries to rise to the top of the popularity pecking order by taking on The Plastics, a trio of frenemies led by the charming but ruthless Regina George (Eleanor Drews). When Cady and her friends devise a "Revenge Party" to end Regina's reign, she learns the hard way that you can't cross a Queen Bee without getting stung.

Director McKenna Flores said of the play, "This story has been close to my heart since the movie came out in 2004. Not only is the comedic writing hilarious, but the story brings to light the nature of cliques in high schools and the shared experience that many young people encounter. "

The cast of 28 students and crew of 22 will perform Mean Girl at Madeira's Medert Auditorium April 10 and 11 at 7 pm and April 12 at 2 pm and 7 pm. Eighteen members of the MHS Class of 2025 are involved in the production. Tickets are available at www.madeiracityschools.org or by scanning the QR code on the website's home page.

This production is a High School Version, and the Madeira Theatre Arts production team has adopted all of the approved edits, but the show is RATED PG-13. It is most appropriate for high school age and above due to mature content and themes relating to high school social issues.
