

Department of Educational Support Services
Arts in Education

Spotlight

Hispanic Heritage Month

Sol Y Sombra Spanish Dance Co www.solysombra.org

Flamenco, Ole! - A multicultural Journey

This program acquaints the student with the Latin/Hispanic culture and the Spanish Language through the exciting international Hispanic art of Flamenco music & dance.

Valerie Marsh Luzadder

Las Posadas, an Hispanic Christmas Tradition with Sign Language and Stories!

Your students will love learning and retelling the story of Las Posadas, the important holiday that is celebrated in the United States, Mexico, Spain, Latin American, Cuba, and other countries! Discover the special stories, foods, parades, fireworks, pinatas, and traditions! Draw, sign and sing! Fun and easy!

Miguel A. Cossio

Hispanic Heritage Month

Artist presenter can work with classroom teachers, art teachers, drama teacher to create with students art, props, banners, murals, parade puppets and masks to celebrate hispanic Heritage Month at your school!

Cuentos de Triadas Inc www.cuentosdetriadas.com

Hispanic Heritage Month In Person Author Visit K-5th

Assembly Style- In Person Bilingual Author visit and reading of International Latino Book Award Winning title: My Little One in Full Moon, Mi chiquitica en luna llena. Poetic narrative that presents the topics of cultural identity, self-acceptance and family traditions. The rhymes and beautiful pictures of the children's book immerse the audience into the beauty of poetry and the Spanish language. Creative activities that invite the readers to see themselves through the eyes of Mi Chiquitica. Assembly can be adapted for students from K-5th grade.

Details including contact information & pricing can be found along with similar programs in the Eastern Suffolk BOCES Arts-In Education online catalogue: artsined.esboces.org