

Department of Educational Support Services

Arts in Education

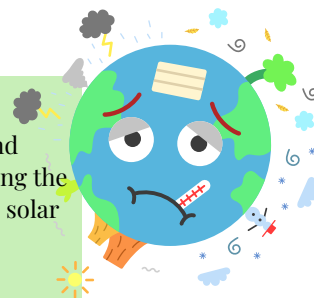

Spotlight

Earth Day- April 22

Michael Caduto- Energy Rocks! Kids' Power Program

Climate Change & Renewable Energy explored through science and the arts. Storytelling, music and participatory experiences of today's energy technologies engage audiences in the process of transforming the forces of nature into energy for everyday living. Features kid-powered demonstrations of wind power, solar energy and magnetic-electrical power; indigenous tales of sun & wind.

www.p-e-a-c-e.net

Toe Sugar Tunes, Inc.- "One Bag at a Time" every day is Earth Day

Songs, Poems, and Movement to celebrate the Earth and the story behind the song created with my students that helped solve the single use plastic bag ecological dilemma in New York State.

Mark Rust- Earth Day Show

A fun, entertaining and educational presentation to celebrate Earth Day. Songs about the earth, animals and the environment. Features guitar, banjo, fiddle, hammered dulcimer and spoons.

www.markrust.com

Night Sky Educational Services- Our Living Planet

Using a giant inflatable Earth Balloon, students and teachers enter and explore nearly all Earth Science topics including: climate, habitat, geology, water systems, geography, environmental, etc. Programs are grade specific and enhance the elementary Science and Global curriculum.

www.nightskyeducational.com

Art & Nature Group, Inc.- CEED Going on a Nature Hike

A planned and guided exploration in a safe outdoor situation of your choice.- Each field trip is customized to reflect your classroom curriculum, such as birds, ecology, forests, soil and more. Destinations include; a park in district, out of district or let us host your classes at CEED's Nature Lodge

www.CeedLI.org

Details including contact information & pricing can be found along with similar programs in the Eastern Suffolk BOCES Arts-In Education online catalogue: artsined.esboces.org

631.286.6989