

Department of Educational Support Services

Arts in Education

Spotlight- Magicians

Alan Garber- I can do Magic!

Students will learn how to perform basic magic tricks and illusions, build confidence in public speaking and become more comfortable in front of their peers and teachers.

www.magic-al.com

James Lazzarini- Extral Extra! Read all About It

Action and adventure, mystery, biography, history, comics, fantasy books are all part of this original one of a kind performance where students experience amazing magic, illusion, comedy, music, and loads of audience participation. All intertwined with a message about libraries, the value of books, and the importance of reading.

www.magicofamore.com

Magic, Balloons, and More Inc.- Secrets of Magic

An interactive performance that combines both teaching students how to perform magic as well as how to ask good questions, develop confidence and communication skills and understand the importance of team work. This program is both show and workshop which develops critical thinking and engages in the interactive creative process.

www.trickybiz.com

David Hagerman- Math-A-Magic In Person

This show has everything audiences want to see: comedy, magic, audience participation, and of course, math! Math can be fun and this show proves it. It invokes a sense of wonder in children when they see miraculous things done with concepts they are familiar with. Learn Money-math and see patterns that will make us good at math.

www.schoolscienceassemblies.com

Academic Entertainment Inc.- Math Magical

Magician Brian Richards will get your elementary students pumped up about mathematics in a welcoming and affirming environment. Brian will touch upon addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, fractions, probability, and more - customized according to grade levels and student development!

Details including contact information & pricing can be found along with similar programs in the Eastern Suffolk BOCES Arts-In Education online catalogue: artsined.esboces.org
631.286.6989