

Department of Educational Support Services

Arts in Education

Spotlight-Anti-Bullying

Ama Karikari-Yawson

Storytelling and Drumming Character Education Assembly

Harvard-trained attorney and storyteller Ama Karikari-Yawson Esq. will perform her best-selling bullying prevention fable Sunne's Gift, accompanied by the captivating drumming of West African djembe drums. After the lively performance, she will lead students through age-appropriate questions. This program is customizable so those who have specific concerns with certain types of bullying such as economic bullying, racial bullying or LGBTQIA+ bullying.

www.milestales.com

Powerful Dave LLC Stop Bullying Now!

Interactive and Educational Magic Shows for Elementary & Middle Schools. In this surprisingly-fun 45-minute assembly program magic, comedy, and audience participation are used to teach students safe, effective strategies for dealing with bullying and the importance of showing others kindness and respect.

www.powerfuldave.com

Prismatic Magic, LLC Bullying Prevention

"Let's work together to keep your school safe and bully-free" In the quest to stop bullying and all forms of intimidation, the power of laser light animations set to high-energy music reinforces the importance of teamwork and positive perceptions! In a social-media-driven world, where cyberbullying has flourished, it is more critical than ever to establish a robust anti-bullying campaign at school.

www.prismaticmagic.com

Details including contact information & pricing can be found along with similar programs in the Eastern Suffolk BOCES Arts-In Education online catalogue:

artsined.esboces.org

631.286.6989