Richard Torrey- Children's Book Author/ Illustration- The author/illustrator of 15 books including the award winning, ALLY-SAURUS AND THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL, Mr. Torrey is highly acclaimed for his educational, inspirational, and entertaining presentations to groups of any size and all ages. Drawing on his years of experience as a children's author/illustrator Richard will describe the process of creating books for children, from generating ideas to finished product. He stresses the importance of creativity in all professions and in everyday life.

Peter Catalanotto- www.petercatalanotto.com

Writing & Illustrating for Children- Inspiring the reluctant writer with Peter Catalanotto! Explore an author/illustrator's creative process from inspiration to finished book. Learn how to get ideas from student-friendly strategies; combining everyday life with imagination and how to develop those ideas into stories. Every session includes a drawing where students are shown tips and techniques they'll want to try. Students leave the presentation empowered to write and draw, and educators become more confident teaching narrative writing. Peter is unique in that he tailors his program to different age levels and can engage kindergartner as well as 6th graders!
