 Visual Arts ***

Beth A. Atkinson- www.bethatkinsonart.com

Gel Plate printing- In this program, participants will work intuitively to create prints using Gelli plate as an introduction to monotype and printmaking. Layering of images and color theory will be addressed. These images can easily be worked into with a variety of materials to explore the individual voice of the artist. The materials that will be used will all be non-toxic and require no special solvents for clean-up which promotes a safer and healthier classroom environment.

David O. Miller www.davidomiller.com

Digital Painting & Illustration Workshop- students will learn to combine technology and creativity by creating a digital painting from a still life, a photo, or a sketch drawn from their own imagination using Adobe Photoshop.

*Other Programs- Cartoon Drawing Workshop, Creating and Drawing Sci-Fi & Fantasy Monsters

Gary M. Long- www.seeingmindfully.com

Portrait and Figurative Drawing Workshop- Students will be able to draw a reasonable likeness of themselves or other people and be able to draw a reasonable proportional representation of a whole figure by following the lesson protocols. These two fundamental drawing lessons are being offered by an academically trained professional portrait and figurative painter.
