

Anne Pasquale- www.livinghistoryprograms.com

Nellie Bly, America's First Female Reporter- What's a nineteenth century stunt reporter doing in your auditorium? Why, getting your story of course! Join actress Anne Pasquale as she brings to life the legendary female who 'gave voice to the voiceless' and changed the role of women in journalism forever!

Calamity Jane- One actress, armed with a bag of props and a trusty sidekick musician, brings the legend of Calamity Jane to life. A perfect complement to those studying Westward Expansion.

Helen and Me- Annie Sullivan changed the world of teaching by opening the mind of one of our greatest female heroines, Helen Keller. Through story, song and join-in-enactments, Anne Pasquale brings this woman's story to life.

Liberty Belles- A program filled with ethnic stories, cultural songs, dances and join-in re-enactments depicting the tales of American immigration. Multicultural rich and perfect accompaniment to the study of U.S. immigration.

Live musical accompaniment highlights these presentations.

Sheryl Faye Miniscalco- www.sherylfayepresents.com

Amelia Earhart's Pioneer in Aviation- The science of aviation becomes her passion as flying becomes her career. She follows her dreams with an indomitable spirit, and her story will inspire students to pursue their own budding interests, whatever they may be, and will also reinforce the importance of family, respect for others and individuality.

Clara Barton- Civil War Nurse and Red Cross Founder by Joan Schaeffer- An excellent program for instilling within children the value of helping others in need. This presentation reinforces the importance of reading and getting a good education to achieve your personal goals and dreams.

Eleanor Roosevelt-First Lady of The World- She advocated for expanded roles for women in the workplace, the civil rights of African Americans and Asian Americans, and the rights of World War II refugees. She became one of the first delegates to The United Nations and one of the top ten most admired people of the 20th century. Social Justice Issues and leadership is a strong message in this program.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg- an American lawyer and jurist who served as an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. This show is the inspiring story of how she changed her life—and ours. "Fight for the things that you care about, but do it in a way that will lead others to join you."

Other programs available:

Abigail Adams-Americas First Second Lady, Anne Frank- A Life to remember, Helen Keller- Champion of the Disabled, Laura Ingalls Wilder- Pioneer of American Frontier, Sally Ride- Scientist and First Woman Astronaut, Susan B. Anthony- Failure is Impossible!
