

Good Evening Jamestown Middle School Families. This is Dr. Vernon with a few important reminders about the upcoming week.

We are super excited to begin welcoming students back to school a week from this Monday. We will begin with our Blue cohort 6th graders on Monday, February 22nd. Orange cohort 6th graders will come on Thursday, February 25th. 7th graders will begin phasing in the week of February 1st and 8th graders the week of February 8th. As a reminder, students will return in cohorts and will come to school two days per week. Blue cohort will attend on Monday and Tuesday. Orange cohort will attend on Thursday and Friday. Wednesday will be a remote learning day for all students. If you are not sure which cohort your child is in, make sure to contact their teacher as soon as possible. Teachers have shared lots of information with students but if you still have questions, don't hesitate to let us know.

I will send out additional information next week to our 6th grade families about what to expect as you prepare to return.

If you need transportation and have not done so already, it is very important that you request transportation using the Transportation Link on our school website as soon as possible. The Transportation Link is also included in the weekly JMS email.

This coming Monday is a teacher workday. There will be no live instruction on Monday.

Meals continue to be served curbside at Ragsdale from 11-12 each day.

You can still find all details about school reopening at www.gcsnc.com/reopening.

Well, we're looking forward to another wonderful week at JMS!

Go Tigers!!!
