

Good Evening Jamestown Middle School Families. This is Dr. Vernon with a few important reminders about the upcoming week.

Today was the last day of the first semester. The second semester, and the third quarter, will begin next Wednesday.

There is no school on Monday in observance of the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday or on Tuesday which is a teacher workday.

In-person school has again been delayed for middle and high schoolers for at least another three weeks. We will move forward with our bell schedule changes next week but will hold off on any individual student schedule changes until we return in-person. Homeroom teachers will be meeting with their students on Wednesday to make sure that they understand the schedule adjustments and the expectations moving forward. Please pay close attention to communications from your child's teachers for additional information.

8th grade families should have received information about high school registration from their child's teachers this week. If you have questions or need assistance, please contact our 8th grade counselor, Ms. Fuller.

Meals continue to be served curbside at Ragsdale from 11-12 each day.

You can continue to find all details about school reopening at www.gcsnc.com/reopening. This information can also be found under the School Reopening tab on our school website.

Well, we're looking forward to another wonderful week at JMS!

Go Tigers!
