Packers track and field has shoes to fill this season

By Colton Pool
cpool@forumcomm.com

For the first time in a long time, the West Fargo track and field team won't have a state champion returning for another season. But, the Packers expect to have a deep roster this season, and head coach Darin McKinnon said they'll have to in order to keep up with the rest of the Eastern Dakota Conference and the state, including returning Class A girls state champion Fargo Davies.

With Division I athletes Jennifer Dufner, Akealy Moton and Zach Willis graduated, the Packers started their indoor season last weekend. These early meets, including the indoor meets, give the Packers a good idea where they stand going into the rest of the season, McKinnon said.

"When you lose kids like that, you really have to score in all areas," McKinnon said. "We have a senior corps that will help."

Taylor Larson conducts a shot put drill during track and field practice Wednesday, March 14, at West Fargo High School.

In the team points standings at the state meet last year, the Packers girls finished in seventh. Moton, who went on to play basketball at the University of North Dakota, won three consecutive North Dakota Class A state girls championships in the javelin and shot put, for which she set a state record at the state meet last year at 48 feet, 6 inches. She was also third in the discus.

Dufner was fourth in the state meet in the 3,200-meter run, fifth in the 800, sixth in the 1,600 and helped the Packers 3,200 relay take seventh.

Willis, now a North Dakota State football player, was third at last year's state meet in shot put and sixth in discus. Drew Mears, who went on to run for Minnesota State Moorhead, was seventh in the 1,600.

"We've got a lot of new faces," McKinnon said. "So it's just nice to get out there and race, throw and jump. I think they're all itching to get out there and do that."

The Packers have talented returners, however. Tiana Pfaff was seventh in the state long jump in 16-11.75 and Madison Connors tied for seventh in the high jump at 4-11. Jacob Levin was sixth in the state boys 200 in 22.62 seconds and helped the Packers 400 relay team take eighth in 44.22 seconds. Kpah Matadi, who McKinnon said was in Willis' shadow until this year, was eighth in shot put with a 50-03.50 throw.

McKinnon admitted the Packers lose a lot to graduation, but he said the boys and girls should compete this year in team standings with their depth as he's seen younger kids develop.

"Now we just need other kids to step up and be point scorers for us," McKinnon said. "It's great to see those younger kids who have been working now over the years to get better to improve. Now it's their opportunities to take over."

Noah Schaeffer, who helped the Packers' 1,600 relay team take seventh at state in 3:30.58, said a few key returners came back, but there were a few new faces at practice even he didn't recognize.

"That's when you start working with them and get them to where we want them to be at," Schaeffer said. "That's what our goal here at West Fargo is score a lot of team points."

Pfaff, a Packers volleyball player, said track and field has helped her gain explosiveness that translates to volleyball. Plus Pfaff just loves jumping. Pfaff says she hopes to break the school record in long jump.

"I just love it," Pfaff said. "Hopefully we're getting faster and bringing new girls up. Hopefully it just goes better."

Schaeffer, a Packers soccer player, said each sport prepares him for the other. Even if the sport is painful sometimes, Schaeffer said he wants to represent his school and leave a legacy when he graduates.

"It's all about how tough you are," Schaeffer said. "It sucks. I'm not going to sugarcoat it. It's terrible. Your legs don't feel good, but you've got to do what you've got to do."

Pfaff says the upperclassmen have already been pushing the younger kids which makes her believe the Packers will be even better this year.

"I think people will step up and fill in," Pfaff said. "I think they'll all step up and get better at what they're doing."

Leo Smith thought for a second he missed something. Others miscounted his laps and thought he was quitting his race too soon.

He knew he went the distance, and he knew he finished first, but he didn't know he had just made school history.

Even though teams from the west side of the state didn't make it due to weather, Leo Smith won the boys two-mile run and Nicholas Smith won the boys high jump to become the first West Fargo Sheyenne track and field boys athletes to win events at the Class A state indoor track and field meet on Friday, March 23, at North Dakota State's Shelly Ellig Indoor Track and Field Facility.

Leo Smith won the two-mile run in 10 minutes, 6.83 seconds, and beat Fargo South's Muqsin Hussien by just over 57 seconds. This was a personal record by seven seconds for Leo Smith.

"I didn't really come in with much expectation," he said. "That's pretty cool."

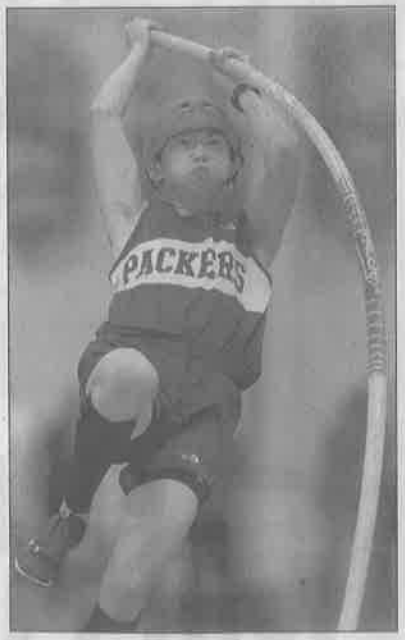

Nicholas Smith, who was sixth at the state outdoor meet long jump last year, took first at the state indoor high jump with a mark of 6 feet, 2 inches. He beat West Fargo's Casey Schaefer by 3 inches and set a new personal record by 4 inches. Nicholas Smith admitted he was tired, but felt his form was just right.

"I've never really taken high jump that super seriously until this year, but it was pretty crazy," he said. "It builds my confidence."

In the team standings, the Packers boys were second with 108.5 points and the Mustangs boys were sixth with 47.5 points. The Mustangs girls finished fourth with 67.5 points and the Packers were fifth with 62 points.

The Packers had three event winners for the day. The Packers boys 3,200-meter relay won in 8:37.02. Junior Jace Dullum said the Packers were focusing on their handoffs and felt they got the exchanges down for the meet. But he said the relay team still has improvements to make.

"I thought everyone was feeling pretty good today," Dullum said. "We just came here prepared and ready to run."

Tiana Pfaff and Nsengiyumva Corode won the girls and boys long jump, respectively. Pfaff jumped a distance of 17-05.75 to beat Grace Emineth of Fargo Shanley by .75 inches. Pfaff said this was a confidence builder and good practice for when weather finally cooperates and outdoor meets start being held.

"I just attacked the boards so I held speed on the runway," Pfaff said. "Today I just held and stayed beautiful. I just need to stay confident with myself."

Corode jumped a mark of 21-02 to beat fellow Packers teammate Jacob Levin by 7 inches. Corode said he looks to Levin as a leader and was surprised to beat him. But Corode, at 5-foot-6 and 140 pounds, believes he could keep it up.

"A lot of these other jumpers are just height. They think the bigger they are, the farther they can jump, and I'm one of the smaller people here," Corode said. "I don't even care. I'm going to come out here and do what I can do."

Track team sprints through indoor season

Eric Tyulyandin
Editor-In-Chief

The West Fargo High School track team finished their indoor track season at the Eastern Dakota Conference indoor track meet on April 6 at North Dakota State University. The athletes participated in the Class A indoor state track meet on March 23 and the junior varsity EDC indoor meet on March 24.

Head coach Darin McKinnon is proud of the team and their accomplishments. He believes they deserved every award that they received.

"I think [the indoor season] has gone well. The results we've had so far from the first few are good. We're happy about it. The challenge with the indoor season, however, is that it is indoor," McKinnon said. "We really just train through our indoor season, so we're not really looking for results as we are about just getting better and trained throughout the early part of the season."

Pole vault coach Brock Larson said since the school does not have an indoor pole vaulting pit the team can not fully do their practices except for when they are outdoors.

They are forced to do drills and other exercises indoors, while having to wait to practice their run throughs and vaults when the weather is decent enough.

"I think, especially here at West Fargo, since we don't have indoor facilities so when we're thinking about jumping and even for some of the beginners you come in here and you don't have a pit to jump on. You don't have a runway to do drills on," Larson said. "Just trying to get everybody to where you want them to be while there's still snow on the ground is hard because we don't have any of those [indoor] facilities."

The athletes officially started the outdoor season after the meet, although some teams, such as pole vault, started outdoor practice before then.

Senior Tiana Pfaff is excited for the outdoor season. She competes in the 100-meter dash, 200-meter dash, the 4x100, 4x200, 4x400 relays and long jump. She says she is excited to finally long jump outdoors and for the rest of the season.

"I am very excited to long jump outside. I have been having a lot of luck indoors, so I am excited to see what the outdoor season has in store," Pfaff said. "I hope that I will break the school record in long jump, since I am tied with it right now."

"Are we happy with [the results]? Absolutely. I think we're off to a good start," McKinnon said.

Haessig said she enjoys track because she likes sprinting and being able to stay active. She also likes how she gets to meet new friends and create friendships. Photo by Kalli Cummings

Sell sprints into last year of track

DelRae Steiner
Assistant Editor

Senior Alex Sell has been participating in high school track for the last four years. He competes in events including the 100-meter dash, 200-meter dash, 400-meter dash, the 4x100, 4x200, 4x400 relays and the high jump. Sell attributes joining track to his parents.

"My dad was a track runner when he was in high school," Sell said. "During freshman year, he told me to try out and I have been in it ever since."

Head coach Darin McKinnon has been coaching for almost 21 years. He has been working with Sell since he joined freshman year. He has many expectations for him in this upcoming season.

"For Sell, [my expectations are] just being able to help the boys sprinting area, when it comes to scoring points," McKinnon said. "As well as now that he is a senior, being one of those role models."

To Sell, the coaches have really helped him and how he is today. For the 100 meters sprint, Sell ran it in 11.81 seconds at last year's EDC track and field meet. The coaches affect his decisions and how he works in and off the field. Track has become a part of his life one way or another, and Sell wants other people to enjoy it as much as he has.

McKinnon said he hopes to see Sell become a role model in this last year of track and field and hopes he can recruit new faces to the teams.

"To me it doesn't matter if you are a senior or a freshman you can always contribute to the track team," Sell said. "So we are really just trying to get people to come out to try track so people can see if the like it or not."

Price leaps toward final season

DelRae Steiner
Assistant Editor

Senior Jesse Price has been participating in track and field since elementary school. She remembers her parents seeing an ad for the West Fargo Parks youth track nights. She has been in love with the sport ever since. She believes her love for track started there, but was pushed even more by the Hershey Track and Field meet.

"Track has allowed me to be more competitive and supportive," Price said. "It has also taught me that when I work hard, it will pay off."

Price competes in the 100-meter dash, 200-meter dash, 4x100 relay, 4x200 relay and the long jump.This season, Price hopes to qualify for state individually for her events and the sprint relays. She also hopes to gain new personal records throughout the season.

Coach Tarah Dahl has worked closely with Price since she joined her freshman year. Dahl has also been a coach in the West Fargo area for the past three years. She has some expectations for Price this upcoming season.

"I hope to see her improve her personal sprint times and qualify for state in the relays and long jump," Dahl said.

To Price, track has allowed her to build confidence and learn valuable life lessons that she will carry with her for the rest of her life. With this being her last year of high school track, she is excited and hopes for a great season.

"Since I am a senior, there will be an extra motivating force to do the best I can and give it all I have," Price said. "I am excited for my final season."

Liberia-born Kpah Matadi looks to have a strong finish to his athletic career for the Packers.

LIBERIA-BORN MATADI BECOMING

TOP-NOTCH THROWER

WEST FARGO TRACK TEAM

By Colton Pool
cpool@forumcomm.com

West Fargo

Kpah Matadi, at 6 feet tall and 235 pounds, is a momma's boy. Matadi tried to be a role model for his siblings as his mother dealt with moving and struggled to find a job. Matadi has always tried to be the best he can be for his family.

Matadi's family moved from Monrovia, Liberia, when he was 5 years old. He doesn't remember much except learning to ride a bike, the dust from the roads and lots of sun.

Matadi, his parents and his two siblings stopped in two different countries on their way to the United States in hope of a better life. Matadi didn't adjust quickly. His first American experience was eating rice, which he quickly threw up.

Matadi lived in the Philadelphia area for the next few years. His part of town was safe, he said, but he consistently heard of shootings and gang violence. Matadi's father, a truck driver, made a visit to Fargo and loved it. So again Matadi's family started from scratch and moved to West Fargo when he was a sophomore.

Matadi felt isolated in a much quieter Midwestern city. Then Matadi found his place with football and track and field. Now a West Fargo senior, Matadi is among the state's top shot put throwers, started for the Packers' state championship football team and was the school's homecoming king last fall.

During the track and field season, Matadi tied the first-place mark at the North Dakota Class A state indoor track and field meet but ultimately took runner-up with a throw of 52 feet.

"I just have to do everything in my power," Matadi said. "And hopefully one day it will pay off."

Matadi still keeps in touch with family back in Liberia and hopes to visit sometime soon, even if hardly anyone there will recognize him. Matadi believes he got his work ethic and values from his roots. He's tried to carry that determination

"He's always bringing people together, trying to get people to push through."

After Matadi finished in the top eight at last year's Class A state meet, McKinnon hasn't been surprised by Matadi's season. While Matadi has impressed McKinnon with how quickly he's developed, Matadi's dedication to weight training made McKinnon believe improvements would come. McKinnon said he still has technical tweaks to make but trusts he'll keep working at it to put out his best throw by the season's end.

"Everything with him is so positive," McKinnon said. "He's always got a smile on his face. With that smile, how can you be around him and not just be in a positive mood? That's what he brings for us."

Matadi has countless memories from sports that he feels he could talk about for days. He hopes to make the most of those memories and time he's spent in practices by winning state this year. Matadi then plans on going to North Dakota State after high school and wants to keep working so he can

Packers boys take first at East Region track and field meet

By Colton Pool

Jacob Levin didn't know who won when he crossed the finish line.

He waited until he saw the results on the scoreboard to see that he won the 100 meters in 11.29 seconds, just .01 second better than Alvin Johnson of Fargo South and Tyler Burian of Grand Forks Red River. Levin, the East Region senior athlete of the year, helped the Packers win the team standings during the East Region boys track and field meet on Friday, May 18, at South High School.

"I could see both of them out of the corner of my eye, so I wasn't really sure at first," Levin said. "I'm feeling pretty good about my races."

Levin felt like he had an alright start to his race, and as he started to stride out, he felt even better about his finish.

"I'm feeling good about my performances so far," Levin said. "Hopefully I'll be sitting pretty good in state."

The Packers won as a team with 149 points. West Fargo's Noah Schaeffer, Jake Svenby, Jace Dullum and Braxton Bruer won the 3,200 relay in 8:11.47.

Dawsen Tyryfter, Alex Sell, Svenby and Schaeffer also won a dramatic 1,600 relay race in 3:30.42, beating Fargo North by .16 seconds to cement their place in the team standings.

Luke Lennon also won the discus with a mark of 150-03, which was an improvement of about 17 feet since the beginning of the season. Lennon said winning was his goal and he knew he had a winner when he let it go, especially going with the wind.

"I just came to compete. That was my motto," Lennon said. "And it worked out for me."

Kpah Matadi won the shot put with a mark of 54-01 and Jaeden Moton won the javelin with a mark of 176-06 for the Packers.

"This is a good confidence booster," Lennon said. "We just have to keep competing going into state."

Sprints

West Fargo's Tiana Pfaff won the triple jump with a mark of 35-03.75, just .25 inches better than Claire Leach of Red River.

Packers break school record at state track and field

By Colton Pool
cpool@forumcomm.com

The West Fargo boys 800-meter relay school record had stood since 2011. The members of that team, now coaches for the Packers, were rooting for this year's team to break it. They knew they were close.

The Packers team consisting of Nsengiyumva Corode, Joel McIntosh, Alex Sell and Dawsen Tyryfter took fourth in the 800 relay in 1 minute, 29.24 seconds, and set a new school record during the North Dakota Class A state track and field meet Saturday, May 26, at the Bismarck Community Bowl.

"It's amazing. It's the best feeling ever," Tyryfter said. "It's a little sad your senior year is done, but then again it's a relief. I feel like this year, taking (the East Region title) home as champions, we were the underdogs and everybody competed their best."

The Packers nearly pulled off a win in the 1,600 relay. Despite leading midway through the race, Tyryfter, Sell, Jake Svenby and Noah Schaeffer took second in 3:25.23, just .6 seconds behind Bismarck Century's winning pace.

Tyryfter said losing by that small margin was heartbreaking but believes the Packers gave everything they could considering they exceeded their own expectations.

Svenby wasn't sure if that relay team had broken a school record too. But he was proud of the result nonetheless.

"It was heck of a race," Tyryfter said. "We went out there and raced our hearts out."

As a team, the Packers boys finished seventh with 47 points. Schaeffer, Svenby, Jace Dullum and Braxton Bruer also took third in the 3,200 relay in 8:08.48, which Svenby said is the first time the Packers have placed in the event for over a decade.

Tyryfter took fourth in the pole vault at 13 feet. The Packers' team of Corode, East Region senior athlete of the year Jacob Levin, Dirus Suah and McIntosh took fourth in the 400 relay in 43.77 seconds. Sell took eighth in the high jump with a mark of 6 feet.

Corode took third in the long jump with a mark of 22-0 and fourth in the triple jump with a mark of 44-11. Levin was fifth in the 200 in 22.72 seconds. Bruer was seventh in the 800 in 1:58.95.

"It was overall an amazing weekend," Svenby said. "Obviously we went out and did our best and it definitely paid off for us."

The Packers girls took 15th as a team with nine points. Tiana Pfaff took third in the long jump with a mark of 18-0.5. Jasmine Williams took sixth in the 200 in 26.14 seconds.

"I thought everyone performed amazing," Svenby said. "We left everything out there. I don't think there would be anything more we could give. It was an amazing day."

She will have four years of eligibility remaining beginning in the 2018-19 school year. Athletes who transfer from one Division I school to another do not have to sit out a season in track and field.

Moton is a former six-time state champion at West Fargo High School winning three state titles in the shot put and three in the javelin. She owns the top shot put in North Dakota high school history at 50 feet, 3 inches and is second all-time in the javelin at 151-8.

The 6-foot forward averaged 2.5 points and 2.3 rebounds while playing in 15 games for the Fighting Hawks this season. At West Fargo, she averaged 25.7 points and 9.2 rebounds her senior year.

She'll join a Bison track and field team that has some of the top throwers in the country. NDSU was first in the country in both the shot put and javelin, according to official track and field rankings.
