Committee Bios (Alphabetical Order)

Connie Batson has been a resident of Falmouth for over 50 years. She is a parent of two Falmouth graduates and has grandchildren currently attending Falmouth Elementary and Middle School. She served on the Falmouth School Board for six years, including chairing the board during the 1995/1996 school year. She was on the building committees for both the Lunt School and the current high school. In 2001, she was honored to receive the Town of Falmouth Citizen of the Year Award.

Mark Campbell has dedicated his career to advocating for and supporting students with special needs. With 17 years of experience at Falmouth High School and a tenure as Assistant Director of Special Education during the 2023-2024 school year, Mark is currently serving as the Director of Special Education in Falmouth. His background as a special education teacher has given him a deep understanding of the challenges and opportunities in special education. Committed to fostering an inclusive and supportive environment, Mark is passionate about ensuring that every student has the resources and opportunities to thrive academically, socially, and emotionally.

Rebecca Campbell (no relation to Mark) is a fifth grade teacher at Falmouth Elementary School. She joined FES in 2022 as a first grade teacher and the following year moved to fifth grade. Since joining FES, Rebecca has been an Equity Team Leader, a member of the Math Pathways Committee, and a FEA Union Building Rep. Rebecca grew up on Mount Desert Island. Before teaching at FES she taught in Cambridge, MA and in Cairo, Egypt.

Ron Cote has been a resident of Falmouth for over 70 years. He is a proud parent of two Falmouth graduates and currently has two grandchildren attending Falmouth Middle School. Ron was a teacher and Principal for 37 years and holds a Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies in Educational Leadership. His mother, Charlotte Cote, taught school at Plummer Motz for over 25 years.

Vicki Hendrix has been a resident of Falmouth for 5 years. She is a parent to three children, one at each school in Falmouth. She is in her third year working at Falmouth Middle School in a combined administrative assistant and student supervisory role. Vicki serves on our district's equity team and is an active board member of our FMS PTO. Outside of school she is a volunteer manager at the Falmouth Food Pantry. Prior to Falmouth, she spent the first decade of her career working in business operations and management. She held a Six Sigma Black Belt certification in process improvement methodology and also spent five years running her own photography business.

Alicia Johnson has been a resident of Falmouth for 3 years and is a parent to two children attending Falmouth Middle School. Along with raising her family, she serves on the Council of Falmouth Congregational Church and is a Board Member for Crossroads

Behavioral Health and Addiction Treatment Center. Alicia is the Vice Chair of the Falmouth School Board and the Superintendent Search Chair.

John Lane has been a resident of Falmouth for 14 years and is a parent to two Falmouth High School students and one Falmouth graduate currently enrolled at UMO. He is a science teacher at Falmouth High School and the president of the Falmouth Education Association.

Abby Werthmann is a senior at Falmouth High School. She has had the privilege of serving as the student representative for two years on the Falmouth School Board and has been a dedicated member of the field hockey team for four years. As the daughter of two Army officers, she has grown up with a deep appreciation for service and leadership. Next year, she will attend Columbia University to study political science and psychology, where she hopes to continue making an impact.

Stacy White is the PreK-2 Co-Principal of Falmouth Elementary School, where she has served for the past six years. With nineteen years of experience in elementary education, and an additional eight years in administration, she is dedicated to fostering strong educational foundations for our youngest learners and supporting excellence in our schools.

Leslie Zamer has been a resident of Falmouth for 9 years and is a parent to a recent Falmouth graduate and a Falmouth high school student. She is a member of the Falmouth School Board and serves on the Finance Committee, Climate, Safety, and Wellness Committee, and is the Board's PATHS representative. Prior to raising her family, Leslie was a Certified Public Accountant who worked for a Big Four accounting firm assisting Federal contractors with accounting and regulatory issues.