

New Benefits News:

We are excited to share that effective March 1, 2024, Tele-Doc was introduced as a convenient and accessible healthcare service added to your current Independence Blue Cross medical insurance coverage. Tele-Doc allows for virtual consults with a doctor at the same deductible as your in-person visit. Please visit the How to Register section for additional information including flyers and registration procedures. HR will be holding a raffle to win a prize for those who register for Tele-Doc by April 30th.

Pay Out Time!

Please remember that two personal days from your allotted personal day balance will carry over into next year's allocation.

As a Professional employee, you have the option to receive payment for any remaining personal days. Please refer to your collective bargaining agreement for more information regarding your options.

Act 93 and Miscellaneous employees can request to have up to 5 of their vacation days rolled into a 403b by request. For details on payout options, please visit the HR website under the Forms & Documents section.
