This is a platform they can also access at home, and will be able to continue using for the duration of the year.
- Classes dedicated to practising and consolidating students' grammar and vocabulary skills.
- Speaking skills practised through authentic learning opportunities including presentations, role-plays and drama activities.
- Reading skills improved by reading texts and completing creative work inspired by the books.
- Listening skills honed by a range of media linked to the novels and drawing comparisons.
- Writing skills built up over the year from short messages to longer essays.
- Lessons to study the news and current affairs.
- Links to the Science and I&S curriculum, to scaffold learning progressively. EAL teachers work with the other MYP Programme teachers to teach foundations and ensure integration.

- All students attend assembly and participate in a Leadership Committee each week.
- The Extra Curricular Activities programme after school is open to all and we strongly encourage our students to join at least one ECA.
