IV. Superintendent Report

A. Updates

1. Opening Video - Elementary Play

Dr. Maria Rianna had a video displayed of Connolly school students performing Frozen for their upcoming play. Dr. Rianna encouraged all to attend.

Dr. Rianna also announced the Glen Cove Celebration of our Diversity taking place on Wednesday, March 12th from 6pm to 9pm at the Glen Cove High School. The Superintendent of Schools stated that there will be different cultural arts productions and performances taking place in the auditorium. There will also be an art gallery showing master classes; workshops in some of the classrooms and a multi-cultural food fair. It looks to be a wonderful event and she hopes to see many people in attendance.

2. Recognition

Dr. Maria Rianna acknowledged one of our students who could not make the meeting tonight. Dr. Rianna called up Ms. Poulos who accepted the recognition certificate on the student's behalf. Mia Masone was acknowledged for her awesome achievement in winning first place in the Ranham Hall Valentines Poetry Contest. Ms. Poulis gave a little history of the contest before moving forward and reading aloud the winning piece. Ms. Poulos congratulated Mia.

3. Budget Presentation

Ms. Theresa Kahan presented via PowerPoint her third budget workshop covering the appropriation budget program component. Handouts of her presentation were distributed among the Board of Education and the presentation was also available to all audience members. No questions were asked.

V. Student Board Member Report

Ms. Isabel Basil provided an update on recent events at the high school:

- On February 13, one of Ms. Hall's classes led a special assembly in honor of Black History Month. The assembly celebrated diverse cultural backgrounds within the community and highlighted the significant contributions of black individuals throughout history. The event was further enriched by participation from the Rho Kappa Honor Society and Select Chorale.
- On February 14, high school staff participated in mental health awareness efforts by wearing purple "PS I Love You" shirts. This event, aimed at spreading awareness and encouraging conversations about mental health, served as a powerful reminder of the importance of mental well-being.
- Last Tuesday, the Harlem Wizards played against Glen Cove teachers in a fun-filled basketball game. Organized by Landing School, and supported by the Booster Club and various PTAs, the event was a fantastic display of school spirit and community engagement. Many community members attended to cheer on the teams, making it an entertaining and memorable night.
- Meanwhile, middle school students have been preparing for their upcoming production of The Addams Family, which will run from March 21–March 23. Community members are encouraged to come out and support these talented students.
- A select group of DECA students will be competing in the New York State Championships in Rochester, showcasing their business skills and knowledge with the potential to qualify for the international competition in April. We are incredibly proud of these students and wish them the best of luck.
- Looking ahead, this Friday marks the highly anticipated District-Wide Red and Green Games, with doors opening at 5:30 PM in the high school gym. Students from each grade will compete in various challenges, with the green team looking to defend their title from last year. This year's competition promises to be just as exciting, and we encourage everyone to come out and cheer for their team.

XI. New Business

XII. Board Comments

Trustee Lia Leone thanked the student who got up and advocated for her religion. Trustee Leone thought it was incredible.

Trustee Meghan Lavine expressed her gratitude to Theresa Kahan for stepping into the role of Assistant Superintendent for Business during a challenging mid-year transition and immediately taking on the budget presentations. She commended Ms. Kahan for her transparency and willingness to address all their questions, acknowledging that the information presented can take time to fully process.

Additionally, Trustee Lavine noted that at the last meeting, a resignation was unintentionally overlooked. She took a moment to recognize and thank Victor Tymchynyuk for his many years of dedicated service, his hard work, and his contributions to improving the district through various projects. She acknowledged that another district presented him with a great opportunity and shared that while the Board of Education is happy for him, they also deeply appreciate all he has done for Glen Cove. She extended best wishes for his continued success.

Trustee Anne Markoulis mentioned that this Friday, March 7th is the Red and Green Games. Trustee Markoulis encouraged everyone to come support our students. Doors open at 5:30 pm. She went on to acknowledge that green won last year and that they will win again.
