

CURRICULUM WRITING COLLABORATIVE

Designing Meaningful Learning: A Project-Based Approach to Curriculum & Assessment

Join Dr. Krystle Hernandez-Barnett, Divisional Administrator for Educational Support Services, for this four-part Curriculum Writing workshop!

DATE • TIME	TOPICS
April 10, 2025 8:30 – 11:30 am	Session 1: Foundations of Project-Based Learning & Curriculum Design <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explore the key elements of PBL (driving questions, inquiry, real-world connections) Analyze examples of high-quality PBL curriculum units
April 29, 2025 8:30 – 11:30 am	Session 2: Designing Engaging Learning Experiences & Scaffolding Student Inquiry <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify strategies for student-led inquiry, collaboration, and research Ensure accessibility and differentiation for all learners
May 5, 2025 8:30 – 11:30 am	Session 3: Creating Authentic Project-Based Assessments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explore authentic assessment methods (performance tasks, portfolios, presentations) Learn how to ensure assessments are aligned to learning standards and additional success criteria
May 28, 2025 8:30 – 11:30 am	Session 4: Implementing, Reflecting, and Refining PBL Units <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Discuss classroom management strategies for PBL Explore ways to integrate technology and community partnerships

COST: $75 per person / per session*

*For those districts who subscribe to the ESBOCES Curriculum Development Service – 1 FREE seat at each session.

AUDIENCE: Administrators Leading Curriculum Writing Teams AND their Team Members

LOCATION: Instructional Support Center at Sequoya, 750 Waverly Avenue, Holtsville
OR Live Online via Zoom (link to be sent the day prior)

REGISTER: <http://webreg.esboces.org> OR click the session title above OR the QR code below *separate registration required for each session

