Fashion Design (Week 9 Option) //

Incoming ⑤⑥⑦⑧

Instructor: Alejandra Markel, LS World Languages

Are you a fashionista? In this fashion illustration design camp, you'll learn how to communicate fashion ideas through visual art. You'll learn to draw body proportions, defining character poses, practicing sketching, and discovering your personal style! Using pencils, colors, markers, paper, and fabric on mini dress form stands, you'll create unique designs that reflect your individuality. In addition to fashion design sketching, you'll also learn how to walk with poise, maintain good posture, and exude confidence!

XPLORE: Summer at TVS - 2025 Fine Print

Registration and Billing

- Program registration, billing, and family communications will be managed through the Auxiliary Programs registration platform.
- All families must create a profile in the system and provide current, valid credit card information for automatic processing of new charges and refunds.

Policies and Waivers

- Families must agree to the 2025 XPLORE waivers and releases during the registration process. A copy of these waivers is available here.
- One key waiver is the XPLORE: Summer at TVS Cancellation + Transfer Policy, which can be found here.
- Some programs will incorporate technology to enhance the camper experience. All instructors, counselors, interns, and campers must adhere to the XPLORE Technology Responsible Use Policy, available here.

Language and Communication

- English is the primary language of instruction, including in foreign language and culture-based programs.
- For safety reasons, all participants must be able to understand verbal instructions from staff. Some instructors may incorporate age-appropriate, literacy-based activities.

Identification and Safety

- It is essential that all participants know their first and last names.
- Campers in grades PreK-8 will receive identification each day. Names will be used frequently for purposes such as roster reconciliation during carpool, group identification (e.g., Lunch Bunch, XTEND Aftercare), and managing medical needs.

Age Requirements

- Campers must be at least 4 years old by the start of the summer season (May 27, 2025).
- Incoming TVS PreKindergarten students who are turning 4 by June 30, 2025, may attend age-appropriate camps in June if admitted to TVS PreKindergarten for the 2025-2026 school year.
- Our camps are designed for participants from rising PreKindergarten through rising Grade 12. High school alumni are not eligible to attend.

Restroom Independence

- All campers, regardless of age, must be able to use the restroom independently for the duration of the program.
- Independence includes the ability to perform basic functions, flush the toilet, and wash hands properly.
- If a camper is not able to use the restroom independently, they will be unregistered from any remaining camps for the summer.
