EMCEES

LINDSEY CATELLIER

CHAMPIONSHIP EMCEE

Lindsey Catellier is a 3rd grade teacher at Reagan Elementary in Brownsburg, IN. She has been a proud Bulldog for 19 years. She is a graduate of Plainfield High School where she was an active member of Belles et Beaux, Les Chanteuses, and Concert Choir. Lindsey also enjoyed participating in Madrigals and the Women's Chorus at the University of Southern Indiana. When she is not singing along to her favorite show tunes, she enjoys spending time with her husband and children on the lake or at the beach!

Lindsey continues to enjoy being a part of the show choir community and is thrilled to be a part of the Brownsburg Spectacular. Best of luck to all the performers today!

KAYA HILL

FESTIVAL EMCEE

Kaya graduated from Brownsburg High School in 2019 and Ball State University in 2022. She studied communication as well as African American Studies and currently works at a small tech company based out of Florida. She loved her time in show choir at Brownsburg and is even more excited to host (and watch) some incredible groups today!

ALLIE PENA

CONCERT EMCEE

Allie is a Choir director at Brownsburg East Middle School. With a degree in Music Education from the University of Indianapolis, Allie is passionate about creating fun, unforgettable experiences with her students. Allie has worked with Avon choirs throughout her student teaching experience, as well as worked with Center Grove and Roncalli for summer camp experiences for young musicians. One of her greatest accomplishments is piloting Brownsburg Middle School's first ever show choir, who had their opening season this year! When not working, Allie enjoys hiking, listening to a podcast (most likely Pod Meets World), or being with her family and friends. She would like to thank everyone who has supported her and wishes all choirs today the best of luck!

KATI SMITH

SOLO EMCEE

Kati graduated from Brownsburg High School in 2024, where she was an active member of several prestigious music groups, including Bella Voce, Starlight Voices, Bel Canto, Madrigals, and Spotlight Singers and Company. She served as co-president of Spotlight Singers/Madrigals during her senior year. Currently, Kati is pursuing a degree in Social Studies Education with a minor in Global Studies at Purdue University.

JUDGES

BROOKE SMOLDER

Brooke Smolder is a freelance choreographer based in Scott Depot, WV. Brooke is a graduate of Marshall University where she earned a bachelor's degree in Education, with an emphasis on Mathematics and Physical Education and a masters degree in Athletic Administration. After years of dance training and competing, Brooke continued her dance career as a four year member and two year captain of the Marshall University dance team. After graduation she became head coach of the collegiate team for an additional five years. Brooke served as the WVAHPERD Dance Chair overseeing the importance of dance education in the state public education system and presenting at state conventions on their behalf. She is also currently appointed by the governor of the state of West Virginia to serve on the WV Commission of the Arts.

Brooke has choreographed for multiple dance teams, cheer squads, show choirs and theater productions across the east coast. She has the honor of choreographing as well as judging show choir festivals across the United States. She is also blessed to serve on staff with Show Choir Camps of America. Brooke is married to her husband, Eddie, and has two children, Braylie and Eddric. She is blessed by the many talented students and directors that enrich her life as she continues to dance and create.

KENNY SHEPARD (AEA, SDC, AAUP)

Kenny writes, directs, and choreographs projects starring Grammy, Tony, Emmy, Dove and CMA award winners as well as American Idol stars. He is also a national educator with Broadway Jr. and is an on-camera choreographer for their Disney Collection seen worldwide. Kenny is a professor in the musical theatre and dance departments at Anderson and Ball State and is a guest director, choreographer, actor and educator with Actors Theatre of Indiana, the Great American Songbook Foundation, the Gregory Hancock Dance Theatre Academy, Phoenix Theatre, Lilly Theatre at The Children's Museum of Indianapolis, Civic Theatre's Young Artists Program, and the Carmel and Anderson Symphony Orchestras. Kenny performed in Mercedes Ellington's Off-Broadway hit This Joint is Jumpin' and in over 100 regional productions including Virginia Opera's Oklahoma! (dream ballet); CATS (Munkustrap); The Wizard of Oz (Scarecrow); and La Cage Aux Folles (Hanna). Other credits include NCL and RCL world cruise ships, the Atlantic City and Branson companies of Legends in Concert and Disney World/Hollywood Studios' Beauty and the Beast, performing in multiple tracks including Belle's Prince in over 1,000 performances. Recently, Kenny performed in the Indianapolis and Baltimore Symphonies' On Broadway with Kander and Ebb starring Beth Leavel, and All Together Now, the Palladium Gala starring Michael Feinstein.

MARTY LINDVAHL

Mrs. Marty Lindvahl is a graduate of Eastern Illinois University. Her successful thirty-four year music education career included years in Indiana and in Illinois, teaching her last nine years at Danville High School. She has been a contest adjudicator and clinician for over thirty years. Marty has been a guest conductor at festivals around the Midwest. She is a member of Illinois Music Educators Association. She is director of the Danville Men's Barbershop Chorus.

Marty enjoys performing in her surrounding community and is a vocalist with a popular jazz/pop group Doc Ashton and the Root Canals in Danville. She serves as Children's Music director and praise band director at her church. Marty is active in her church's monthly Food Pantry that feeds over 400 families each month. Marty plays clarinet in the Danville Municipal Band. She has served as musical director and as a performer in Danville Light Opera. She has directed several ensembles that perform with the Danville Symphony Orchestra.

Marty is married to Mark Lindvahl, a retired instrumental educator and school administrator. The Lindvahl's have a married daughter and son who have blessed them with six grandchildren!

ERIC VAN CLEAVE

Eric Van Cleave is a musical arranger/orchestrator, director, and educational clinician. He has worked with many of the nation's finest high school and college music programs as well as Cedar Fair Amusement Parks, Show Choir Camps of America, Alfred Music Publications, and Lafayette Music Productions. Eric has also conducted the Illinois, Arizona, and New Mexico All State show choirs.

Recent projects include composing and producing music for the Indiana State Museum and circus daredevil, Bello Nock. He holds a B.A. in Education from Ball State University (chirp chirp!) and an M.B.A. from Indiana Wesleyan University.

CHANTZ GOULD

Chantz Gould is a freelance choreographer based out of Kentucky and is in his ninth year as a show choir choreographer. Originally from West Virginia, Chantz moved to Lexington after finishing high school to continue his education at the University of Kentucky where he received his Bachelors in both Theatre and Biochemistry and his Masters in Physician Assistant studies. In his free time, Chantz works in the ER as an Emergency Medicine provider in Lexington. Chantz has choreographed and assisted with many show choirs and musicals throughout the state of Kentucky, as well in West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Virginia, North Carolina, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island. He has served as a clinician with many middle school and high school choirs across the east coast. In addition to choreography, Chantz has also served as an adjudicator at show choir competitions in West Virginia, Ohio, Virginia, Indiana, and Rhode Island.

He hopes to continue his passion of creating choreography and teaching in years to come.

ANDREA PEDREGON

Andrea Lukovich Pedregon is first and foremost a Mother to Cecily, Arielle, Dezi & Neco. She is a successful business entrepreneur who was a Managing Director to an Athletic Club, designed & opened a Day Spa within that club in Michigan, established a Wedding Consulting business in California, owned and operated a Championship Race Team based in Brownsburg and is currently a Real Estate Broker in the Indianapolis area. Dearest to her heart is her charity foundation, Spark Of Hope, which donates to cancer research.

Between Cecily's years of pageants, competitive dance and of course show choir, B Andrea has a true love for watching the performing arts. Proudly, she helped kick off the very first Brownsburg Spectacular so It is a special treat to be back to judge and find each school's Best Performer!

WAYNE BERK

Wayne Berk has 32 years of experience as a teacher and music educator in Ohio. He holds a Bachelor's Degree from West Liberty University and a Master's degree from West Virginia University. He was a show choir director for 20 years. His choirs have won many awards and have been recognized by the Ohio Educators Association as an outstanding music program. His groups have performed around the state of Ohio and West Virginia and won recognition at festivals in New York, Disney, and Nashville. Wayne is currently the Director of Choral Music and Theater at St Clairsville High School and teaches chamber ensembles, show choir, contemporary choir, and theater. In addition to school, he is music director at Friends Church in St Clairsville. Wayne is the blessed man of a great wife of 28 years and has two awesome kids. Caleb is getting a Masters degree at the University Of Glasgow, Scotland, and Abigail is doing mission work in Honduras, Central America. I am looking forward to hearing these talented students perform on stage!

JONELLE HEATON

Jonelle Heaton received her B.S. degree from Indiana State University receiving the Minerva Pepinski Outstanding Music Student award and MM from Indiana University. She began teaching in 1978 and through a 45-year career taught Pre-K through Adult students. Her last 21 years were spent at Plainfield High School before retirement in 2021. During her tenure at Plainfield High School, Heaton grew the choral program to include 5 ensembles; 3 of which were competitive show choirs. Belles et Beaux, Femmes Fatales, and Nouvelles earned Grand Champion designations, best vocal/choreography/ensemble and crew awards, and ISSMA State Show Choir Championships. Her choirs also received consistent Division I ratings at ISSMA Organization contests. Heaton has served as a ICDA district representative, ISSMA

Show Choir Committee member, and was named Plainfield Community School System's Teacher of the Year in 2016 selected as one of the top 25 state finalists.

CECILY PEDREGON

Cecily Pedregon works as a freelance choreographer based in Indianapolis, IN. She choreographs for high schools across the midwest alongside her fiancé and choreographer, Joe Sato. She graduated with a degree in Film, Cinema and Media Studies from Indiana University in 2021. Originally from Brownsburg, Indiana, Cecily has enjoyed producing, designing, coaching and choreographing for several show choir programs for her 8th competition season now as a teacher.

Cecily has an extensive background in competitive dance, pageantry and show choir. Throughout the past 8 years, she has choreographed across the state of Indiana at Brownsburg, North Central, Fishers, Northridge, and Lawrence North. Outside of Indiana, Cecily works at Findlay, Benton Community, and Naperville North. She truly enjoys working as a clinician and judge during each competition season!

BAILEY SPEARS

Bailey Spears is a Brownsburg High School graduate and very excited to be back at the Bulldog Spectacular! She was a member of Brownsburg Starlight Voices from 2015-2017. After high school, Bailey attended Butler University where she earned her Bachelor's degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders. This May, Bailey will graduate from Miami University with her Master's degree & move back to the Indianapolis area to begin her career as a speech-language pathologist.

In her spare time, she likes to watch reruns of The Office, eat at Shake Shack, and hang out with her incredibly talented choreographer friends Joe & Cecily. Bailey is thrilled to pick the best performers of this year's Festival Show Choir division!

JUDGES

AMY HOFFMAN HUGHLEY

Amy Hoffman Hughley is the Associate Artistic Director of the Indianapolis Children's Choir, where she has served since 2014. She directs the Master Chorale and the Anderson Area Youth Chorale, oversees artistic staff, and assists Executive Artistic Director Joshua Pedde. She also teaches private piano lessons and has held teaching positions at DePauw and Butler University.

Mrs. Hughley has been a choral clinician and adjudicator nationwide and internationally. She served as Georgia ACDA president, Honor Choir Coordinator for the Midwestern ACDA Division, and held leadership roles with the Indiana Choral Directors Association. She taught high school choral music in Georgia for 14 years, earning Riverwood High School's Teacher of the Year in 2011. Her choirs have performed at ACDA and Georgia Music Educators conferences.
