Who We Are

We are committed to ensuring our students are healthy, safe, supported, challenged, and engaged.

We believe:

- Learning and the education of the whole child is a shared, collaborative, community-base responsibility
- We must be inclusive, provide multiple pathways to success and strive to meet the needs of all learners
- Instruction should be authentic, challenging, and rigorous, and elicit the most critical skills and disposition from our students
- All facilities should be safe, environmentally respectful, and supportive of student learning

Haldane Traditions & Community of Learners

HALDANE

Haldane Traditions

Spirit Week & Homecoming

Celebration of Haldane spirit: themed days, pep rally, “scoop the loop,” Halloween, cookie decorating, Underground Spirit Week. Homecoming games draw the whole town.

Sports Send-Offs

Each sports season brings champions celebrated with K-12 send-offs.

Senior Send-Off Picnic

Senior post-graduation plans are announced at a school-wide picnic, followed by field day.

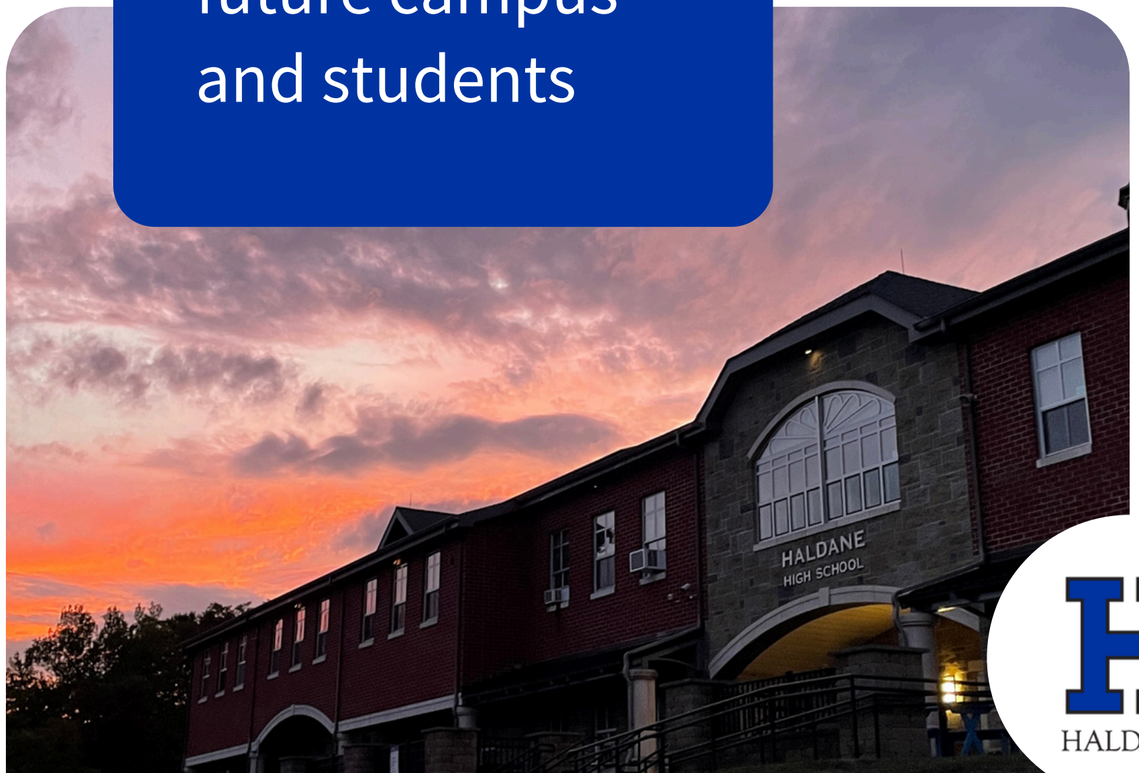

Graduation & Ringing the Bell

Haldane Seniors graduate on our outdoor knoll, each one ringing the Haldane bell for good luck. Our final senior rings the class year.
