 Today is St. Patrick's Day! We hope you are wearing lots of green! First period teachers, please be sure to complete the form that Mrs. Wells sent out to you this morning so we can find out which class has the most St. Patrick's Day spirit!

 March is Women's History Month. We celebrate Women's History Month to honor the amazing contributions women have made throughout history, in areas like science, politics, art, and more. It's a time to recognize their achievements and inspire everyone to keep working toward equality and empowerment for all. By learning about these trailblazing women, we can better understand the world and make it a more inclusive place. Each day for the month of March, we will honor historical women by reading an inspiring quote. Today's Women's History Month quote comes from Mairead Maguire when she said, "If we want to reap the harvest of peace and justice in the future, we will have to sow the seeds of nonviolence here and now, in the present."
