

A Shadow's Dance

Beneath the surface, where shadows creep
A bully's mind where darkness keeps
A wounded soul, a fragile heart
A twisted mind, torn apart.

They lash out, with words that sting
A cruel defense, a bitter thing
To hide the pain, they fear they feel
A mask of power, a twisted deal.

They seek control, a sense of might
To drown their sorrows in the night
A vicious cycle, and endless game
A bully's torment, a shameful name.

But let us reach with open hand
To heal the wounds, across the land
In empathy's embrace, we find our place
Breaking the chains with gentle grace.

With understanding's light, we pave the way
Bringing forth peace on a brighter day
The shadow dances with a gentle sway
Bringing forth peace in a kind way
In a world where bullying cannot stay.
