

Davie County Schools Superintendent Search Applications Update

Mocksville, N.C., March 18, 2025 - The Davie County Schools Board of Education has announced that the deadline to submit applications to serve as the school system's next superintendent has passed.

The board received 28 applications from nine different states, including North Carolina.

The applications will be processed by the North Carolina School Boards Association (NCSBA) and released to the board. The board looks forward to reviewing the applications and moving into the interview stage of the superintendent search process over the next few weeks.

###