Days of . . .

Here, at last, is you 1991 Flashback. We who have brought it forth feel that it covers everything from pep rallies to term papers.

Much work has been put into this annual, but the end result made the extra hours well worth it. As you're looking through the pages, you'll remember moments, people, and events special to you. This remembrance is what an annual is all about.

We are proud of this yearbook. We know you will be, too. Remember, we couldn't have put it together without YOU. Thank you for making it possible.

Days of . . .

This year we had so much trouble deciding who to dedicate the annual to, we, the Flashback, decided to have a co-dedication. This year's annual is dedicated to Mr. Lelon Davidson and Ms. Sarah Lacy. Because of their constant devotion to education and untiring contribution to the betterment of OHS, we feel that they are the obvious choices for this year's dedication. We love you Mr. D. and Ms. Lacy!

Our sense of pride at Oxford High School is never hard to find. It is found in the heart of each student. It's also the feeling one gets through winning and losing, good times and bad. It's true lightning does strike twice, because we not only take pride in sports but in education too. Now pride is back and here to stay.

One thing that's evident at Oxford High School is it's spirit. At the pep rallies and games, cheering voices and laughter fill the air. When one enters Bobby Holcomb Stadium and the Thunderdome, the electric atmosphere can be felt. The student body's spirit and support for the athletes was tremendous. Oxford High School's winning attitude this year brought the student body, cheerleaders, athletes, band, and faculty together. Thanks, Chargers, for keeping the pride and spirit at OHS alive.

Friendship is a necessity in everyone's life. When things aren't going your way or you're just bored, friends are always there. At Oxford High School, we take pride in our friends. Each day you see friends walking down the halls laughing, or you may even see someone fighting for their friends. At OHS, friends are not too hard to come by. When you look down the hall you'll see a friend or someone you'd like to have as a friend. A friend is there to share good times with the bad times. A friend is better than gold. And at OHS gold is not that easy to come by, but we are rich with friends.

Days of ...

Excitement! Fun! Enjoyment! These characteristics are only three of the many which describe the personalities at Oxford High School. At OHS we enjoy being ourselves, we are extremely creative in everything that we do. During our years in high school, we are given the opportunity to learn who we are by expressing our feelings as we grow into adulthood. This process is aided by a staff of teachers which stimulates our intellectual and emotional development. All of our actions blend together to make Oxford High School.

Days of ...

Diversity is defined as "the quality of being diverse or different; variety. A point in which things differ." Each of the students here at Oxford High School is different in his or her own way. Whether its one's personality, religion, the way one chooses to dress, or their nationality, everyone shows diversity. Because OHS students develop their character and talents to such a high degree, OHS is in a class all its own.

Days of ...

Love is defined as a fond, deep, tender feeling or a warm liking. This feeling is very evident here at Oxford High School between both couples and close friends. Relationships have come and gone as the years has passed. Tender moments have been captured at games, in the halls, and during spirit days here at OHS.

The 1990-91 school year gave the ladies of OHS a chance to participate in a new sport. This sport was girls softball. For the first year of competition the softball team played well, not forgetting the fact that they were playing against more experienced teams. The team played 10 games and finished with a record of 3 and 7. They had a good overall season and gained experience which will be helpful in the future. The Ladies are excited about and looking forward to the coming season, even though they are losing two seniors. Good luck in your future seasons!!!!!!

SENIORS

As the senior class of 1991 looks back on its four years at Oxford High School, they will remember all the great (and not so great) changes they've gone through. Everyone has grown up a bit, become closer friends, and strived to become the best they could be. They've excelled in sports as well as academics. Teachers, as well as a principal, have come and gone, and the seniors are better people for the excellent education received at OHS. Congrats to the class of 1991 and good luck in the future.

Secretary/Treasurer: Laura Beth Walker*

The sophomore class entered their second year at OHS. As freshmen they were easily looked over and forgotten. But this year the class of 1993 is realizing that one day they too will be the leaders of this school. Their dedication to Oxford High proved to be an unforgettable quality that will remain throughout their high school career. The class of 1993 will certainly never be forgotten.

Editor's Closing

Being the editor of the 1990-91 Flashback Staff consisted of much work. I would like to thank Mrs. Wells, our sponsor, and the staff for their help and hard work. Working together we were able to make this annual a success. I will always remember the 1990-91 Flashback Staff.

Thank You,

Felecia
