Ubiq

www.ubiqeducation.com | hello@ubiqeducation.com

UBIQ was the fastest-growing school website provider in 2023 and is expected to repeat this same accolade in the year ahead.

Our mission is to continue to transform the website and wider school marketing landscape, through democratising data, educating schools on the value of insights from first-party data and finding ways to create a single source of truth for marketing and admissions.

Our unique approach to entwining data science with creativity gives the schools they work with a direct and tangible advantage over their competitors. Something critical to independent schools in what has become an uncertain and unpredictable market. Behind the scenes, we continue to deliver enterprise-grade technology that empowers our schools to become data-driven decision-makers.

Speak with UBIQ today to find out how we are changing the school website landscape forever, one website at a time.

Noodle Photography

www.noodlephotography.com | LinkedIn

Based in the UAE and with a regional outlook, Noodle Photography brings over 12 years of experience working in tandem with international schools in Singapore, the UK and the UAE. We specialise in creating captivating visual content and telling stories that resonate with audiences.

Whether you need content for media campaigns, alumni engagement, a facilities showcase or just general gap-filling, our services are flexible and adaptable to your unique requirements.

Our approach is a true partnership, working closely with educators and marketing departments to ensure that every image and video reflects the unique spirit and values of the school. This collaboration results in high-quality content that leaves a lasting impression on students, parents, and stakeholders.
