Course Description

This course will explore the first principle in the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association's (ASHA's) Code of Ethics (2023) for speech-language pathologists. Participants will have the opportunity to analyze the topics of evidence-based practice and appropriate delegation of tasks as they relate to ethical behavior.

Learner Outcomes

At the conclusion of this session participants will be able to:

- Define the first principle of ASHA's Code of Ethics (2023)
- Identify 3 rules of Principle I from the ASHA Code of Ethics
- Explain evidence-based practice and its relationship with ethical behavior
