The family of Dennis Gillan presents:

DENNIS GILLAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Dennis Gillan Scholarship Fund has been created to assist in the post high school education of a high school senior who will continue his or her education in agriculture, environmental science, outdoor hospitality, construction or a trade, such as, but not limited to, welding, diesel mechanics or heavy equipment operating. Dennis Gillan resided in Bureau and Lee Counties his entire life and was a local farmer, business owner, Local 150 Operating Engineer and Local 393 Laborer. His livelihood was built on hard work and sweat equity, and it is the hope of his family that the recipient of this scholarship will show the same work ethic and values in achieving his or her goals.

The attached application is for the Dennis Gillan Memorial Scholarship, to be awarded annually in an amount no less than $2,000 and not to exceed $4,000. The committee reserves the right to issue more than one scholarship annually as deemed appropriate.

To be eligible for consideration, an applicant must:

- * Submit a completed application.
- * Submit most recent high school transcript.
- * Submit an essay describing yourself, including your community involvement, extracurricular participation, intended field of study and future career plans. Please also include why you are deserving of this honor.
- * Submit two letters of recommendation in sealed envelopes (excluding relatives).

Upon proof of enrollment, the scholarship award will be paid directly to the college or institution of attendance.

Applications must be postmarked by April 15 and mailed to:

Dennis Gillan Memorial Scholarship
1442 Sleepy Hollow Road
Amboy, IL 61310

Recipient(s) of the scholarships will be chosen by May 15 and notified via mail. Proceeds of the scholarship will be remitted directly to the school of attendance in the recipient's name.
