DESCRIPTION

K-12 Content Area | Mission & Philosophy Statement

- Through language study, deep cultural empathy and competence are developed, enabling meaningful interactions with diverse communities that broaden global perspectives.
- Multi-lingual communicators are prepared to bridge cultural gaps and contribute positively to a multicultural, inter-connected world and economy.
- Advanced linguistic skills enhance career opportunities and are in high demand for roles in international relations, global business, and education.
- Language and cultural studies foster resilience and adaptability and equip students to build meaningful cross-cultural relationships.

Course Description

Spanish 2 is designed to further develop and strengthen the skills of reading, writing, listening and speaking in Spanish. Students will expand their knowledge of grammar, vocabulary and culture , with the cultural emphasis being the study of the regions of Spain.

This course reviews and builds on prior knowledge and concepts learned ,while expanding on that knowledge. This course is designed to prepare students for future language learning. The grammar focuses on the preterit tense; irregular commands; reflexive verbs; and various other concepts.
