Leadership Announcement

Hey Rams, it's DudeBeNice Week and we are going to discuss bullying. Bullying can cause mental health issues, making people have anxiety, depression, and causing them to not be able to sleep as well. It can also make people not want to do the fun activities that they did before. This includes all types of bullying, including physical bullying, cyber bullying, verbal bullying, and relational bullying. So be nice. Join leadership in karaoke and sing along today. The dress up day for Thursday is rhyme with reason, this means you and a friend find an outfit that rhyme together. For example, Birthday and Kim K. The leadership class will be hosting a lunch time activity Thursday. This game you bring your friend that you dressed up with and you will go against another team and you will try to keep rhyming whoever stops first losses so don't lose!
