

January Student of the Month: Sponsored by Fastenal

Cenai Ferrer, a senior from Scranton High School, has been nominated January Student of the Month by her Cosmetology Instructor, Ms. Christine Menichini. “Cenai exemplifies the qualities of a truly exceptional student: dedication, perseverance, kindness, and a genuine passion for learning. I have had the privilege of observing Cenai consistently excel in Cosmetology while also contributing positively to the school community. She approaches every challenge with a positive attitude and an eagerness to improve, which inspires those around her to do the same.

Cenai obtained early licensure in Cosmetology by taking the exam in July, she has completed her 1250 hours before Xmas break. Cenai has been attending CTC in the AM session since October to complete her hours which shows her dedication to her education. Cenai also exemplifies strong character and integrity. She consistently treats peers, teachers, and staff with respect, creating a welcoming and inclusive environment wherever she goes. These qualities make Cenai a role model for others and a shining example of what it means to be a leader in our school.”, stated Ms. Menichini.

At CTC, she was a model for SkillsUSA esthetics last year and has served on many cosmetology community service projects.

January Student of the Month: Sponsored by Fastenal

Mackenzie Adolfson, a Mid Valley senior, has been nominated January Student of the Month by her Culinary Instructor, Chef Steve Anania. “Mackenzie is a two-time Skills USA District Competitor, Bronze Medalist in the Cake Decorating contest, and has maintained an “A” average throughout her career at CTCLC”, stated Chef Steve. While in the program, she obtained her OSHA 10 for Culinary and ServSafe Food Handlers certification.

Mackenzie is the daughter of Margaret and Gary Adolfson.

While at Mid Valley, she is a member of MV Softball and Basketball teams where she serves as captain of both. In her sophomore year, she won the State Softball Title. In her spare time, she works at Krumbel Cookie and does Irish Step dancing.

Upon graduation, she will head to Pennsylvania College of Technology, to pursue a degree in Business Management and will play softball.

January Student of the Month: Sponsored by Fastenal

Michaela Reed, a Forest City senior, has been nominated January Student of the Month by her Electrical Instructor, Mr. Rob Letteri. “Michaela is a genuine person and leader. She quietly leads and is a positive role model. This stems from what he learns in the classroom to how he performs in the shop area. The desire to help others, the willingness to learn new things, and his courage to overcome obstacles. Specifically, she builds others up, volunteers to do any task with a positive attitude, and is willing to learn new tasks without prompting. It is an honor to teach Michaela and CTC should be proud to have a student like him among us”, stated Mr. Letteri. Michaela is currently out on Co-Op placement with Lockheed Martin. While in the program, she has obtained her OSHA 10, OSHA 30, and American Ladder Safety certifications. She will be competing atthe SkillsUSA State competition for Team Build.

“I came to the CTC because I thought it would be a good skill asset to have”, stated Michaela. At Forest City, she is a member of the Forest City Ski Club, Honor Roll, In her spare time, she participates in Equestrianism competitions, and is a part of the Hill Impact Program.

Upon graduation, Michaela would like to go into the State Police or I.B.E.W. L.U. # 81.

