Absent: Alicia

- Jeana Briggs, Chester. She has four boys in the system with two still in Chester. She fought last week, now she is here tonight as a parent. There have been people bringing light to her kids. When her kids were shaking, she was relieved when Mr. Folta stepped in. Mr. Folta has been a godsend bringing light back to our kids. This is a difficult time and you have not seen us at our best and she appreciates that he comes back. She thanked Kurt Garivaltis. Ms. Cabral who has given up her personal time to sit and eat lunch with the 5th graders. Lastly to the entire Chester staff who have been grace under fire, professionally, personally and dealing with us crazy parents. I was re-elected as a Chester school committee member last May. This is her 4th year. There is no one better than her. What she has done is unmeasurable, but as a parent this situation has her kids, their kids upset. Mrs. Maffuccio is the best. She is happy to see principals and teachers rushing to support Chester. They needed to see the black hole that was there. That is when they should have come to support Chester. These measures should have been seen. Privacy could have been maintained while helping her kid during a trying time. What he went through, what the kids went through, she is here to make sure that the safety and education of our children come first.
- Tasha Strong - Middlefield. She has two children that both started at Chester. Chester elementary was not always great. It was lacking in leadership and communication. Mrs. Maffuccio came along and changed it and challenged everything I have known her since her interview. She had the most passion and her primary purpose was to make the kids feel loved. Even after her son left to start middle school Mrs. Maffuccio would still check in. She would email, call or talk to her walking from school committee. There is no one who can fill her shoes. She is also on the school committee and has very much enjoyed what Mrs. Smidy has done to change the district. Getting funding and grants, she has witnessed first hand what they have done. She is hoping this process can move quicker. They don't want more than or equal to, they want Ms. Maffuccio.
- Alicia Swendsen - talked about a few regulations, responsibilities of the superintendent and why these are important: organize administration, establish clear lines of communication, appoint committees each will be given responsibilities. You must follow Mass general law for suspension or dismissal of professional staff. Rights of the employees must ensure due process. What is the policy of workplace investigation, how do you establish rights. On 12/20 who was the administrator in the building. Why did it take thirty-one days for complaints to be given and lodged. What about the fourteenth amendment? She has nothing against Mr. Folta, but his certification expired in 2021. Why is that protocol not being followed

- Sarah Page, former school committee member. It is important to understand this is not in the purview for school committee. The job entails overseeing and evaluating the superintendent. She has full confidence in the decisions made by Mrs. Smidy. This will continue to be true. Her heart and passion goes into the district. For those who have been here long enough this is undeniable. School committee is volunteering to make the community better. They are not compensated. The dedication it takes to be a member of this committee. It is time to trust your voices have been heard.
- Michael LaBranche, Para at Littleville is a proud Gateway graduate under a previous superintendent. During the summer program when he started Mrs. Smidy showed him nothing but respect and passion for doing what is right. He is confident that Mrs. Smidy is the right person for this school. He has witnessed the transition of superintendents. He has only seen positive change, a place where students, staff and families feel supported. During this investigation privacy must be kept. It must be hard for her to remain silent and not share. For Mrs. Maffuccio, privacy must be kept to show her respect for her. Mrs. Smidy's decision to appoint Mark at this time shows how much she cares. He is experienced and worked here not once but twice. He was supported by students and staff. He takes time to get to know the students. If we can all step aside and let Mark do his job and reflect on what she has done to build a strong community.
- Peter Stone, Middlefield. He appreciates everyone's support, but the message is being lost. We are not here to get the superintendent fired. Our principal has been taken from us. Meanwhile their school is falling apart. Our children are being put in dangerous situations. He understands Mrs. Smidy is doing an amazing job. He appreciates Mr. Folta being brought to our schools, but behavior plans are not being followed and we have had bullying. Behaviors toward children based on their sexual orientation. Vanna made his daughter. He is very sorry if that is the message that came across on social media. What they have read is this is small town politics, a witch hunt. Just fix the problem.
- Sophia Stone, student. She said there was a major major problem before Mrs. Maffuccio. She has a separation agreement that has been broken. Please, Mrs. Smidy, I love you, you are smart, amazing and so much more. I went to Boston with you and felt safe and happy. She is disappointed teachers are acting and setting up even more. Please help us, our school is not safe anymore. Our students are scared so please act fast.
- A student in second grade in Chester said he was sad when his mother told him that Ms. Maffuccio might be replaced. Both principals have been very nice. Our school has beenhe doesn't know what to say.
- Misty Robitaille, Chester. As someone who worked at Chester and has been advocating hard. She wants to remind everyone that this doesn't have to be anybody against anybody. Last week we were so angry and this week everyone is so sad. She loves Gateway more than anything. She doesn't know what stuff was taken. At the end of the day we have to be respectful. She thinks it has gotten out of hand. We can choose to be respectful to find a solution for our school. This week she has been crying everyday all day because the teachers have been put in a very bad position.

- Sophia Stone talked about being sexually harassed, racism and all of this stuff that is very scary. What are we supposed to do when they are sitting here why this is happening? When you ask someone to stop and they continue to do so. She tried so hard to go to people but the maximum time it goes away is 5 days. She needs us to do something about it. This sexual harassment is scary and it is not acceptable. The really really weird thing is when Principal Maffuccio was here it didn't happen, and now it is happening again. She tried to raise her voice and it didn't matter. She is here to be heard. Please hear my voice and do something about it.
- Mr. Jason Forgue told Sophia he hears her.
- Sophie said she was told to be quiet.
- Mr. Jason Forgue said this is the first time they are hearing it and they will look into it.
- Misty Robitaille and Mrs. Briggs said their son's are in this same class.
- Mr. Jason Forgue will answer the questions from Alicia Swendsen if she sends them to him.

7:17 P.M. III. PRINCIPAL INPUT

- Dr. Sullivan formally addressed the group and thanked the committee for the opportunity to speak and introduced himself as the Principal of the Gateway Regional School and Mrs. McCaul, the Principal of Littleville Elementary. At last week's meeting, we heard from parents, community members, staff, students, and committee members. Principal McCaul and I chose to remain silent during that time, allowing the community to voice their thoughts and concerns without our positions influencing the conversation. Many expected an update regarding Principal Maffuccio's absence, However, it is important to remember that both the superintendent and the school committee are bound by legal and ethical obligations that prevent them from publicly sharing specific details. We understand that the lack of public disclosure can lead to speculation and rumors, which could ultimately cause harm to everyone involved. It is crucial for the superintendent and committee to follow this process for the protection and privacy of all, and for the community to understand that whatever is unfolding will take time.
- Mrs. McCaul said It is clear there is deep respect for Principal Maffuccio's contributions. We were also deeply moved by the stories shared by students about the impact she has had. We too deeply respect and appreciate her work, and we have built a strong professional bond over the past three years. We understand that waiting and uncertainty are incredibly difficult, especially when concerned about their children's futures. We recognize the added challenge of Chester Elementary being separated from the main campus. Dr. Sullivan and I will be asking some of our counselors to make time at Chester each week to provide students with any additional support they may need. In this school community help is only an ask away. Here, we build each other up and we stick together. The entire Gateway school community is here to support you. We do not just speak for ourselves, but for all who are part of this community, led by the capable, strong leadership of Superintendent Smidy. Our role, as principals, is to be instructional leaders while upholding policies and procedures with integrity and fidelity. Leading with integrity is sometimes challenging and can feel thankless. Simply following policy does not mean we are indifferent to the impact it may have on our students and staff. It does not mean we are not frustrated, or that we don't care, it means we are doing our jobs with the integrity and professionalism expected of us. Similarly, Superintendent Smidy's role is to guide the district forward while adhering to policies and processes. Every decision made by a superintendent requires careful thought and is made with the district's best interests at heart. The process being followed may seem unclear or distant, but personal attacks, accusations of vendettas, and assumptions of ill-intent, will not expedite or change this process, in fact, they could hinder it.

- Dr. Sullivan said we respect and care for Principal Maffuccio. We also want to assure the Chester Elementary community that we are here for them. The process underway is about maintaining integrity, not about questioning character. The challenges we face are an opportunity for leadership and unity to shine through. Leadership, especially during difficult times, can feel lonely. It is easy to question the decisions made when you are not in the position of the leadership being challenged. But this is when leadership is most critical. It is when character, empathy, and professionalism matter the most. We have unwavering support for Superintendent Smidy. Her leadership, alongside Assistant Superintendent Fisk, has been the steady hand that has helped guide this district forward. Thanks to their leadership, the Gateway Regional School District has shown incredible growth as an entire district over the past few years. We are honored to work for them. Frustration and disagreement are natural, especially when the reasoning behind certain decisions isn't fully understood. Having worked alongside Superintendent Smidy every day, we can say with complete confidence that all her decisions are made with professionalism, integrity, and accountability. We have full trust in her ability to guide, inspire, and lead with purpose. She is, and will continue to be, the leader this district needs and deserves. In addition, we have had the privilege of witnessing this committee accomplish great things for our students. We ask the committee to reflect on the incredible work you have done together for our students, staff, and community. We recognize the challenge you have each day to stay focused on what is best for the entire District, no matter how difficult that may be. He thanked the committee for allowing he and Mrs. McCaul to speak this evening.
- Mrs. Briggs said respect is why she is here. Counselors should have been there from day one. None of you in this room have been there while our kids are suffering. You should have been there from day one. A decision was made, but that decision impacted our kids and no one cared
- Mrs. Briggs left at 7:40 p.m.

7:23 PM III. PRESENTATIONS/REPORTS/RECOGNITIONS

A. Abbey Keeler is the 2025 Pioneer Valley Excellence In Teaching Award Winner

- Mrs. Smidy announced that Abbey Keeler has received the 2025 Pioneer Valley Excellence in Teaching award.

B. FY '26 Budget Overview Slides (Enc.)

- Mrs. Smidy gave a powerpoint presentation.
- Mr. Brian Fogue said the first year we had about $200,000 in chapter 70 aid. Are we assuming we will get this again?
- Mrs. Smidy said it sets the baseline, our chapter 70 increase is $77,000.
- Ms. Fisk said we dropped to category 9 from 10 but we are being held harmless.
- Mr. Jason Fogue said this is the most people we have ever had. One of the biggest slides is rural school aid. One of our former reps wrote a bill. They were tasked to fix the plan, suggesting 60 million dollars to make up for the shortfalls with a quote on quote promise. We are at 16 million. We need to advocate. Senator Mark and Representative Boldyga gave their usual spiel. They have said they were going to do it and they haven't.

If we get anything out of this please call, follow up, push them. Go directly. Brian has testified. We went from 60 to 16 million when we thought we were heard.

- Mr. Jason Forgue talked about the allocation across the towns. There was mention that the levy limit is hard for those going up. We had an alternative assessment in which it would balance out the increase. Two out of the six towns refused to do it. Chester gave Russell help for what we thought was fair from year to year. It is extremely difficult to budget for towns with limited resources when you have a 3.63% increase. We attempted to rewrite the regional agreement so there was an option.
- Maddy Scott, are any of our services and staffing where we could lose services and staff.
- Mrs. Smidy said we have a number of staff paid out of grants and rural aid. If the revenue sources were lost. We would have to lose staff or programming.
- Maddy Scott asked when we would know.
- Mrs. Smidy said I wish we had news. We are really between a rock and a hard place.
- Mr. Jason Forgue said some school districts don't put it in the budget because of the unknown. Ms. Fisk and Mrs. Smidy do a good job, they guesstimate.
- Susan Rhoads asked If all those numbers do come in, are we projecting a shortage.
- Mrs. Smidy said we are not projecting a shortage, but we are at the skin of our teeth. We don't want to pink slip folks when we know we are close. Other schools are cutting.

7:40 PM IV. UNFINISHED BUSINESS/ACTION ITEMS

7:52 PM VII. STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE UPDATE

- Theodore DeAngelis-Page said Project Safe Childhood met with 6-12 students last week to teach students important lessons on safety. The Sandy Hook promise also met with 6-12 student to talk about the positive way of connecting with one another
- High school students have been interning in the middle school to help teachers with anything they can and give middle schoolers a view into high school lives.
- In 9 hours a group of 27 high school Spanish students are heading to Costa Rica with Mrs. Batra.
- High school had a spirit week planned this week.
- There are multiple Barr trips coming up for 10th and 11th grade students. The culture committee is working to tackle different problems or areas of improvement. They are taking a field trip to Mohawk regional to check out their student advisory programs.
- Reindeer Games was successful this year and they had main office versus central office teams.
- There has been an inconsistency with mid-terms this year. The way they were administered made students feel stressed.
- Middle School - new semester started and new exploratory blocks are in student schedules. There were improvements made in I-ready scores. Student tours took place on January 22, where 7th graders went to the high school.
- Winter sports are wrapping up for the season. Boys basketball had their senior night already. The girls basketball team played at the hall of fame for their last game of the season.
- Littleville - The Littleville Barr team helped create a form to make applying to fund ideas in their classrooms easier. Birds of Prey came to teach students about birds and bird watching. They celebrated the 100th day of school on February 5th. They are prioritizing kindness in a school wide door decorating contest. Jump Rope for Heart week is coming up. William Hardy, a Russell resident and author of "the Naturalist" talked to students about his experiences.

- Chester - His role on the committee is to represent and advocate for the student needs. Last week several Chester students came forward with grievances that were upsetting about their academic lives. He is asking us to put the children first. The Trout program is underway. The Mad science show is back. 5th grade students are working on the Willy Wonka Jr. Play and 3rd grade is participating in a media club.
- Mrs. Jason Forgue said Wrestling has D3 Sectionals on Saturday.

7:57 PM VIII. COMMUNICATIONS

A. School Committee

- Mrs. Goding would have voted to approve the policies but she wasn't prepared.

B. Chairperson - Yearbook Ad

- Mr. Jason Forgue said we will be running a school committee yearbook ad. The cost is $15 per school committee member.
- Mr. Jason Forgue recognized and welcomed our new school committee member from Russell, Alicia Hansen.

C. Superintendent - Central Office Update (Enc.)

- Mrs. Smidy understands there are concerns about what is happening with the Chester leadership and welcomes any outside investigator to dispel bias or to come forward.
- Mr. Jason Forgue said the next meeting is the budget hearing. Will put it on the agenda after that.

D. Assistant Superintendent - None

E. Administration (Enc.) - None

F. Town Officials - None

8:05 PM IX. COMMITTEE REPORTING (Enc.)

A. Superintendent's Evaluation - None

B. Legislative Liaison

- Mr. Brian Forgue said Representative Boldyga came to speak at the Chester selectboard meeting. He asked him about his actions and opinions on rural school aid and was not impressed with what he had to say. Did not go into any actions. They mentioned community actions. He asked him to sponsor the Bill Jason was discussing HD3619 and comp SD2178. There is still time for bills to be introduced. We will continue to fight for increased rural school and chapter 70 aid.

C. Negotiations

- Negotiations had an opening meeting staff and the next meeting is set.

D. Building Liaisons

E. CES Update

- Mr. Brian Forgue said they met in the middle of January and they are not doing so hot. They are facing a 1 million deficit in the budget this year. They provide special education services, grants, and they are phasing out their licensure program. They called on board members and citizens to call on their representatives too. The per student amounts might increase slightly by about 50 cents per student.
- Mr. Brian Forgue said it is difficult for Chester to make the increase. The fact that Mrs. Smidy and Ms. Fisk kept the overall to 1.5% when we are seeing districts out east asking for 4-9% increases. We budgeted smartly and responsibly. It's nothing short of a miracle. Thank you so much. He looks forward to working with you.

- Mr. Jason Forgue said not all of the grants offset the budget. He thanked Mrs. LeBlanc for all the work in getting them. One of our former CES representatives Mr. Lubbers gave us the information on the BARR grant.

F. Policy

- Mr. Jason Forgue said they met again to go through a long list. It is one of the 3 major roles we serve, it is very important.
