

SPORTS MEDICINE

This program emphasizes the recognition and care of common injuries and illnesses sustained by a physically active population. Students acquire skills related to anatomy and physiology, nutrition, fitness and exercise, taping procedures, vital signs, training room management, injury treatment and training, and patient care.

- Anatomy and Physiology
- Assessment of Vital Signs
- Nutrition
- Sports Medicine Clinic/Facility Management
- Fundamentals of Fitness and Exercise
- Taping Procedures
- Medical Terminology
- Patient Confidentiality
- Therapeutic Modalities

Certifications:

CPR/First Aid

AED

BLS

