B. IDEA Hearing

Lori Sancin, Director of Pupil Services, presented information regarding how funds are allotted to support Students with special needs in our district. Berea City Schools receives just over $1.5 million in federal funds for special needs students in the 2025 fiscal year. Approximately $37,000 is allocated to two nonpublic schools in the district. The remaining $1.4 million supports salaries for staff who assist students with disabilities. Another $37,000 is specifically used for early childhood special education services. There is uncertainty about the Potential impact of changes in federal education funding. The district is awaiting further clarification.
