

Celebrate Autism Acceptance With Us!

April 1-4, 2025

Andrew Muller Primary School

Terrific Minds Tuesday (April 1): Neurodiversity means that no two brains are alike. How awesome is that! To Celebrate the diverse spectrum of the human mind, wear rainbow and/ or tie-dyed clothes to school. You can even wear a fun hat and/or wild hair!

World Autism Acceptance Day (April 2): Love and acceptance go a long way. The new colors for Autism Acceptance are red or gold. Wear your red, or gold to show your support, awareness and acceptance!

Talk about your Passion Thursday (April 3): One characteristic of Autism is to show an incredibly focused passion for topics of interest. What are you passionate or interested in? Dress to show something you love! This can be clothing apparel with favorite characters, sports or activities on it. Share your interests at Morning Meeting with your class.

Sensory Friendly Friday (April 4): Autistic individuals often have a variety of sensory sensitivities. Dress up today in your most comfy clothes and sneakers. This can even be your school appropriate cozy pjs!
