Digital Readiness Check Walkthrough

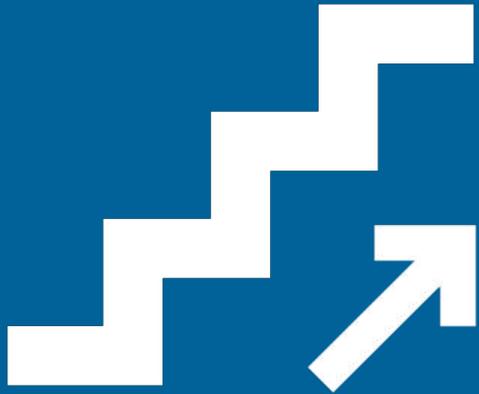

Student Digital Readiness Check

Purpose of the Digital Readiness Check:

- ✓ Ensure devices being used for testing meet technical requirements
- ✓ Ensure Bluebook is installed correctly
- ✓ Complete exam setup process
 - ✓ Review test taker rules
 - ✓ Provide optional test taker information
- ✓ Add Free Score Sends
- ✓ Complete Test Preview or Full-Length Practice Test
 - ✓ Explore universal tools
 - ✓ Answer sample questions

The Digital Readiness Check will take approximately 30 minutes for students completing the Test Preview and should be completed 1-2 weeks prior to test day.

This session will cover some basics about the SAT test and have you register for the test.

Please note, CollegeBoard requires login names to be student's legal names.

To start, power off your Chromebook (hold down the power button). After a moment, turn it back on and do not log in.

While you do that, we will cover some information. This slideshow, with some added details, will be available to you after this session, if you want to go back and review any of the information.

Launch Bluebook

We will now log in to the testing platform and have you complete some registration materials.

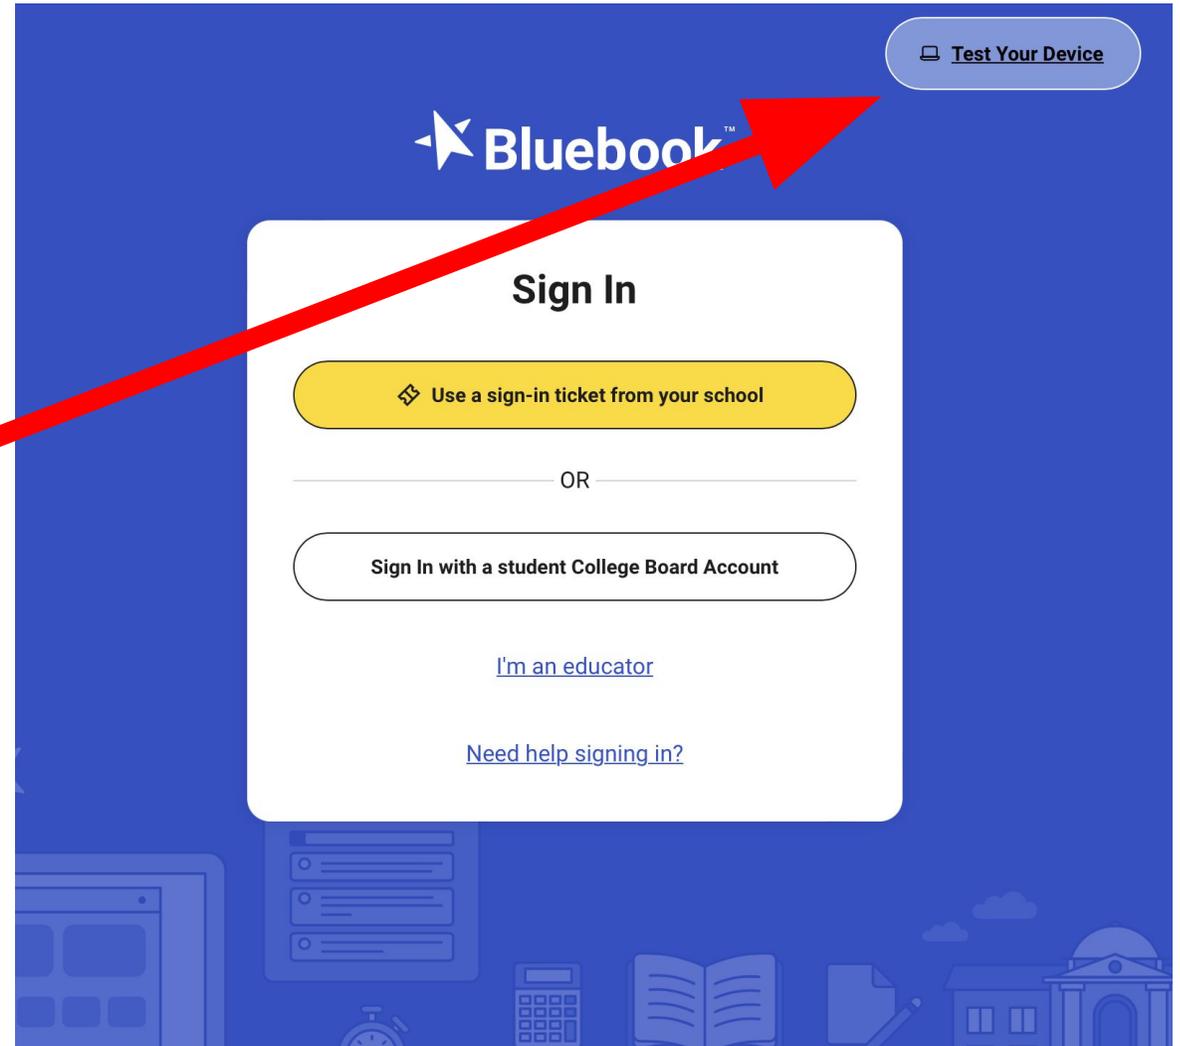

Do not skip ahead, as not all items are completed.

Without logging into your Chromebook, go to the “apps waffle” (lower left corner of your screen).

Again, CollegeBoard login names are required to use student’s legal names.

Test Your Device

Test your device before you sign in by selecting the Test Your Device button

Test Your Device

If the device meets the requirements, select Done.

If the device does not meet the requirements, let your proctor know.

Sign in to Bluebook

It is now time to sign in to Bluebook using the sign-in ticket you were provided.

You are signing in to set up for test day.

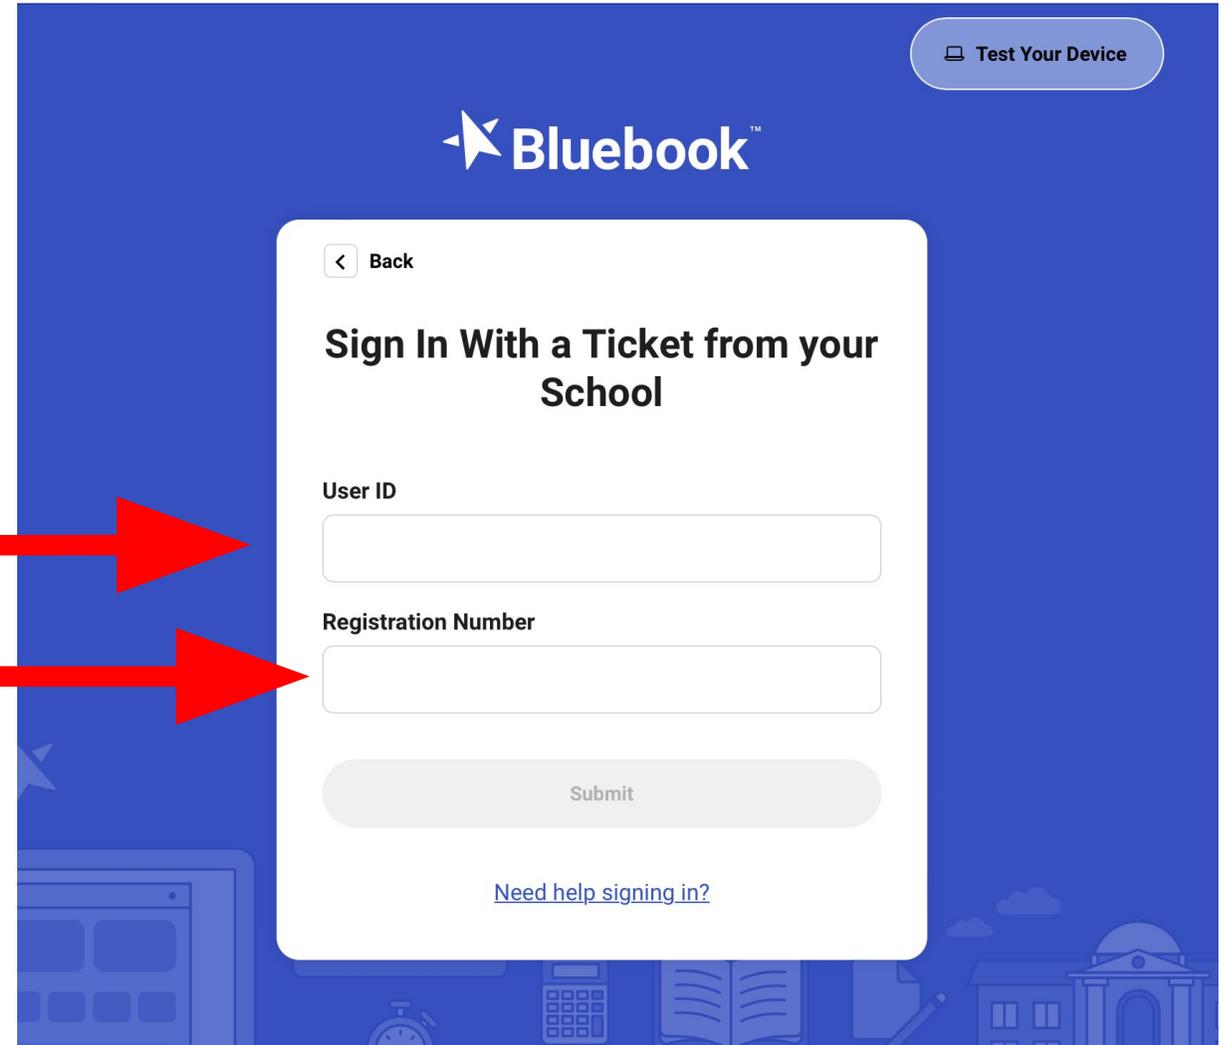

Sign in to Bluebook

Your sign in ticket will have:

Your user ID

Your

Number

Compare Your Test Ticket and Bluebook

After you sign in, confirm your test ticket matches the information on your test card.

Ensure the correct test is displayed.

Ensure the correct school name is displayed.

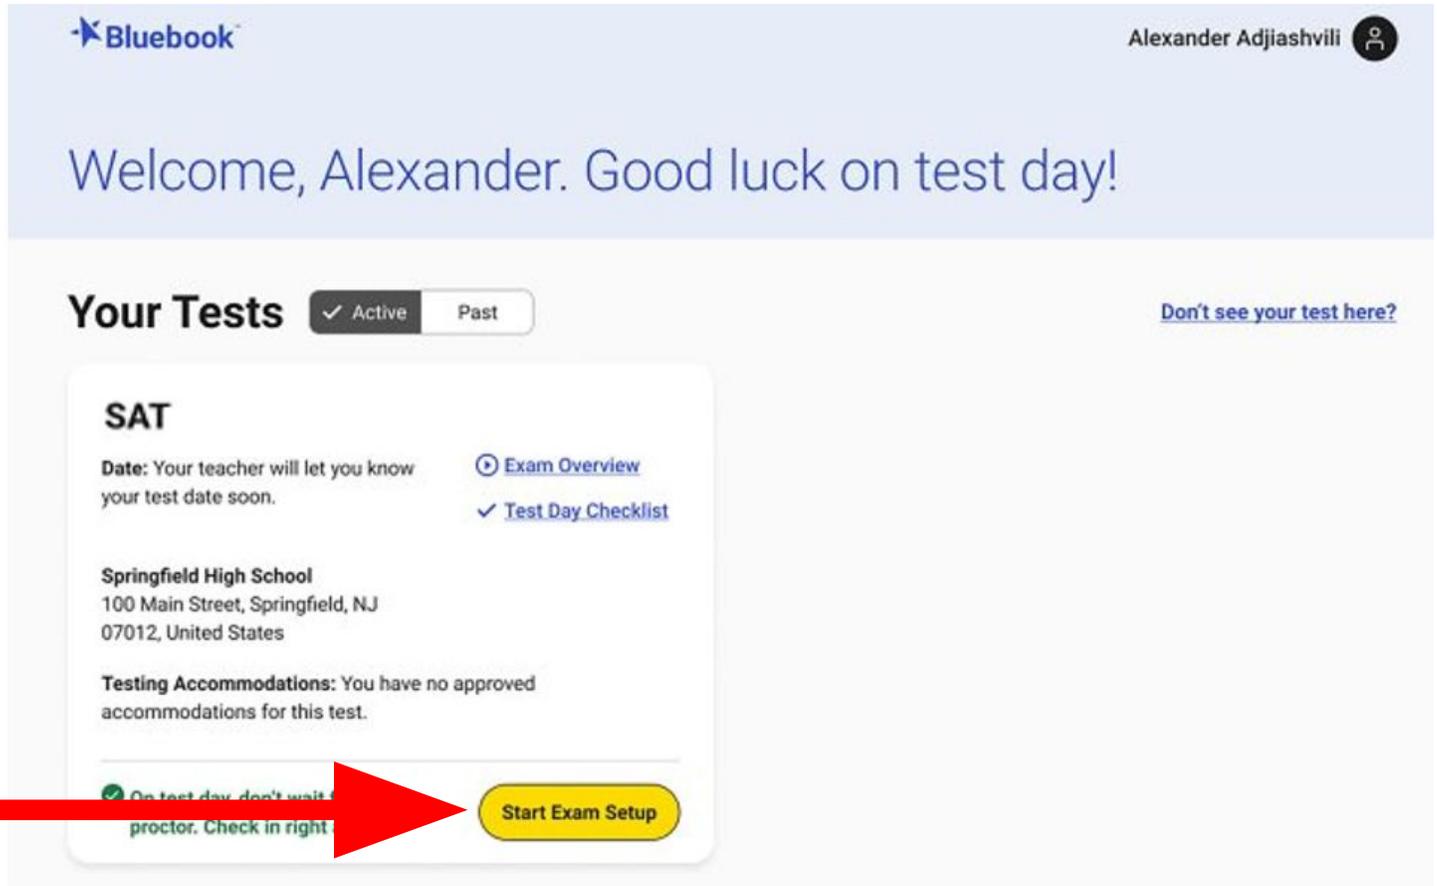

(If applicable) Check that the correct accommodation(s) are displayed

The screenshot shows the Bluebook user interface. At the top left is the Bluebook logo, and at the top right is the user's name, Alexander Adjashvili, with a profile icon. Below the header is a welcome message: "Welcome, Alexander. Good luck on test day!". The main section is titled "Your Tests" and has two tabs: "Active" (selected) and "Past". To the right of the tabs is a link that says "Don't see your test here?". The main content area displays details for an SAT exam. It includes the test name "SAT", the date information "Date: Your teacher will let you know your test date soon.", and two links: "Exam Overview" and "Test Day Checklist". Below this is the school information: "Springfield High School", "100 Main Street, Springfield, NJ", and "07012, United States". The "Testing Accommodations" section states: "You have no approved accommodations for this test." At the bottom of the card, there is a green checkmark icon followed by the text "On test day, don't wait for your proctor. Check in right away." and a yellow button labeled "Start Exam Setup". Three red arrows point from the text on the left to the "SAT" title, the school name, and the "Testing Accommodations" section.

Start Exam Setup

If your test ticket and information in Bluebook match, you are ready to select Start Exam Setup.

The screenshot shows the Bluebook interface for a user named Alexander Adjashvili. The page displays a welcome message and a section titled "Your Tests" with tabs for "Active" and "Past". A card for an SAT test is shown, including the test name, date information, location (Springfield High School), and testing accommodations. A red arrow points to the "Start Exam Setup" button at the bottom of the card.

Students Confirm Personal Information

- Confirm that your name and approved accommodations (if applicable) are listed. Then, click Next.
- NOTE: If your name or accommodations look inaccurate, raise your hand. We cannot continue with exam setup until all issues are resolved.

Review & Agree to Test Taker Rules

Read and agree to the testing rules for the exam. Then, proceed to the next screen.

SAT Testing Rules

Introduction

This is a legal contract between you and College Board.

WARNING: There are serious consequences for not following the rules. You may be dismissed from the test. Your test may not be scored, or your scores may be canceled. You may be banned from taking future College Board tests. Your conduct may be reported to your high school and colleges to which you apply.

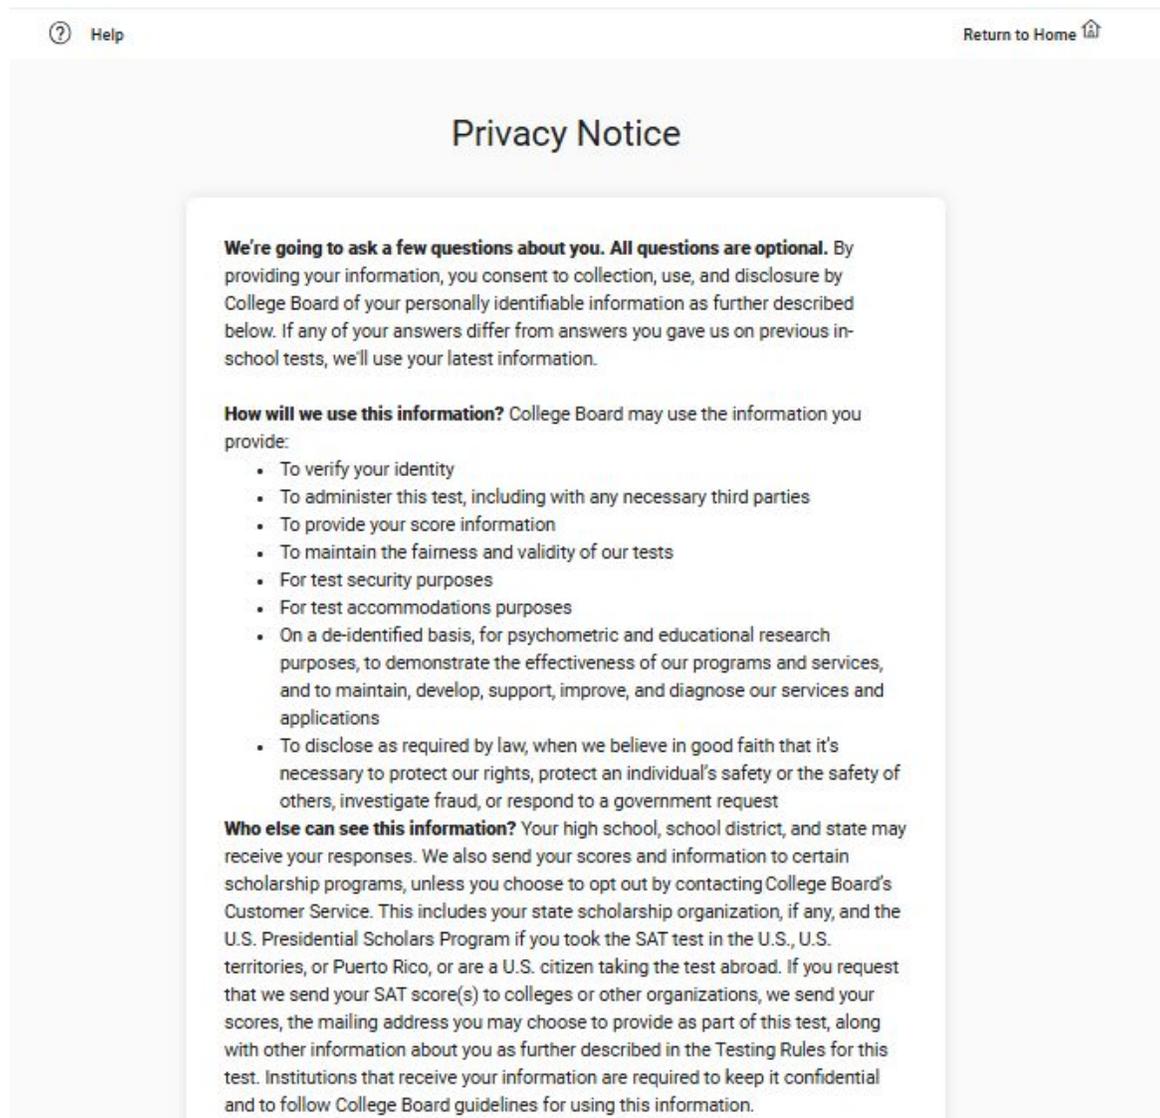

NOTE: See Section 9 for how disagreements between you and College Board will be handled.

Section 1. Taking the SAT

- The SAT is a digital test. You will take the SAT at school, on a testing device, using an app called Bluebook™.
- Your testing device must be one of the following:
 - Windows laptop or tablet,
 - Mac laptop,
 - iPad,
 - Chromebook managed by your school.
 - In some cases, you may be able to take the SAT on a desktop computer in a school computer lab.
- You cannot use any other devices to take the SAT. You cannot take the SAT on a mobile phone.
- Your testing device must have enough charge to last the duration of the exam and setup.
- Make sure your device is running on an approved operating system. See bluebook.collegeboard.org/students/approved-devices for more information.
- Bluebook must be downloaded to your testing device before you can

Privacy Notice

Review the privacy notice.
Then, click Next.

The screenshot shows a web page titled "Privacy Notice" with a "Help" icon and "Return to Home" link at the top. The main content is a white box with a light gray border containing the following text:

We're going to ask a few questions about you. All questions are optional. By providing your information, you consent to collection, use, and disclosure by College Board of your personally identifiable information as further described below. If any of your answers differ from answers you gave us on previous in-school tests, we'll use your latest information.

How will we use this information? College Board may use the information you provide:

- To verify your identity
- To administer this test, including with any necessary third parties
- To provide your score information
- To maintain the fairness and validity of our tests
- For test security purposes
- For test accommodations purposes
- On a de-identified basis, for psychometric and educational research purposes, to demonstrate the effectiveness of our programs and services, and to maintain, develop, support, improve, and diagnose our services and applications
- To disclose as required by law, when we believe in good faith that it's necessary to protect our rights, protect an individual's safety or the safety of others, investigate fraud, or respond to a government request

Who else can see this information? Your high school, school district, and state may receive your responses. We also send your scores and information to certain scholarship programs, unless you choose to opt out by contacting College Board's Customer Service. This includes your state scholarship organization, if any, and the U.S. Presidential Scholars Program if you took the SAT test in the U.S., U.S. territories, or Puerto Rico, or are a U.S. citizen taking the test abroad. If you request that we send your SAT score(s) to colleges or other organizations, we send your scores, the mailing address you may choose to provide as part of this test, along with other information about you as further described in the Testing Rules for this test. Institutions that receive your information are required to keep it confidential and to follow College Board guidelines for using this information.

Optional Student Information

We will not have you provide this optional information, so please click Next.

If you wish to provide optional any of this information, you may log in at home to do so.

The screenshot shows a web form titled "Your Contact Info" with a progress bar at the bottom. The form contains three sections: "Email Address", "Address", and "Country".

- Email Address: Includes a help icon, the text "All questions are optional.", and instructions: "Please provide your email. Do not provide a parent, guardian, other caring adult, and any other individual's email." Below this is an empty text input field with a clear button.
- Address: Includes a help icon and instructions: "Your home or mailing address is used to assist College Board in matching your test submission to your record for purposes of test administration, score reporting, testing accommodations, and test security." Below this is an empty text input field.
- Country: Includes two radio button options: "U.S., U.S. Territories and Puerto Rico" and "Outside the U.S.".

Navigation buttons "Back" and "Next" are located at the bottom of the form. A "Return to Home" link is in the top right corner.

Free Score Sends in Bluebook

We do NOT recommend this, as you do NOT get to see your scores before they are sent!

- You may now request where to send up to four free SAT School Day score sends as part of exam setup.
- Score send requests can be changed up to three days after the student takes the test in Bluebook.
 - Students will need to use their School Day sign-in ticket credentials to access Bluebook if they would like to add or change score send requests after testing is completed.

Send Your SAT Score for Free

Choose up to four institutions to send your score to. This step is optional.

Test Day Checklist

REQUIRED:

- You must have a fully charged device—it needs to stay on for roughly 3 hours. You may test with a personal device or a school-managed device.
- If you're testing at a school you don't attend, you'll need a valid photo ID.
- Follow all safety procedures at your school or test center.

ALLOWED:

- You can have a power cord or a portable charger, but we can't guarantee you'll have access to an outlet.
- There's a graphing calculator built into the app, but you can also bring your own approved calculator.
- You can use an external mouse or keyboard. External keyboards are allowed with tablets—not with laptops.
- You're allowed snacks and water, but only during breaks.

PROHIBITED:

- Other applications—you must close all other apps and programs while the test is in progress.
- Notes, books, or any other reference materials.
- You will be provided scratch paper, but you may not bring your own.
- Headphones or earbuds—unless you have a College Board–approved accommodation.
- Any camera, recording device, or timer.
- Mobile phones and smartwatches are prohibited. If you bring one, the proctor may collect it before the test.
