

Tustin Unified School District
 Community Advisory Committee for Special Education
 Application for Membership
 2024-26

What is the Community Advisory Committee (CAC) for Special Education?

The Special Education CAC encourages parents to actively participate in the development and implementation of learning experiences for students with exceptional needs. The committee empowers parents through education to become knowledgeable, effective partners in their child's education and special needs. Parents, educators and other concerned individuals in the Tustin Unified School District serve on the CAC.
