Dear Lawrence Staff,

As we near the well-anticipated spring break, please be advised that we have an emergency closing day scheduled for the Monday after spring break, (4/21). As we have not had an emergency closing yet, all schools will be closed for students and 10-month staff members on Monday, April 21, 2025. Twelve-month staff members who plan to take that Monday off are asked to please use a vacation day.

In addition, I am pleased to announce that we will celebrate “Bring a Kid to Work Day” on Thursday, April 24, 2025. This national observance is a special day when you may bring your school-aged children to work so they can experience the work environment and glimpse at what you do each day.

Involvement in this event is intended to increase career awareness – especially in education – among students. Many teachers allow children to share what they have learned when they return to the classroom. The day has been successful in previous years due to the cooperative efforts of thousands of parents, schools, businesses, organizations, and other concerned individuals who demonstrated their interest in children’s education and future workforce participation.

We hope you and your children enjoy this special day full of learning and admiration for educational professions.

Respectfully,

Robyn A. Klim, Ed.D., LCSW
