QUOTE OF THE DAY:

"Your self-worth is determined by you. You don't have to depend on someone telling you who you are." ~ Beyoncé

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

SENIOR OLYMPICS

April 1, 3, 7, 8, 10 from 9:41-11:17am each day (between 1st and 2nd periods)

Mandatory Senior Class today in the Patti Baker Theater

- What is Senior Olympics? A Tiger Tradition that takes place for the Senior Class while the rest of the school is participating in CAASPP Testing. It involves both team and individual "Olympic Games." These games are silly, fun, exciting, entertaining, and designed to provide one last chance for the Senior Class to be kids again!
- All Seniors are REQUIRED to attend this event, attendance will be taken. You may be a spectator or participant, but you must attend.
- You do not have to be on a team. All Olympic events will take place in Moeller Gym
- Teams consist of 5 girls and 5 guys. You may have one boy and one girl alternates
- Team Sign Ups will take place after the meeting Wednesday. ALL team members must be present OR you must have their ID card with you
- Bonus points given to teams in matching "uniforms"
- Prizes given to the winning team and winning individuals
- See Mr. Errecart with any questions
