EXTRA CURRICULAR LESSONS - SPEECH & DRAMA
LAMDA Syllabus

Speech & Drama classes following the LAMDA syllabus are available for girls and are taught in groups until L6 when solo and paired classes are available.

- U3, L4 - Group Acting or Group Devising Exam
- U4 – class size reduced for Acting Duo
- L5 - Grade 6 Bronze Medal Acting Duos
- U5 - girls choose between Level 2 Shakespeare for Performance, Grade 6 Bronze Medal Verse or Group Acting (reduced pressure over GCSE year)
- L6-U6 - girls can choose from: Group Acting/Devising, Acting Solo/Duo, Speaking Verse & Prose, Public Speaking and Reading for Performance.

Exams are taken at the end of the Spring term and during the rest of the year lessons focus on drama skills, improvisation, mime, play and poetry readings and theatre games, all of which help the girls prepare for the next grade of exams.

Speech and Drama classes offer an excellent opportunity to gain social and interpersonal skills, improve self-esteem and learn to speak to an audience in a confident and articulate way. The girls make new friends across their year group and find the process enjoyable and stimulating.

Classes will be offered in groups at lunchtime and after school. Sixth Form lessons take place during their free periods.

In the event of classes being full your daughter's name will be put on a waiting list.
