

Harold Jasper

Bellport High School Class of 1990

Bellport High School graduate Harold Jasper, Class of 1990 has been categorized by his former football coach, Joe Cipp, as the “Most accomplished modern day athlete.” Harold was a three sport athlete playing football, basketball and track. He holds the New York State record in track having jumped 6’8” in the high jump and he was on the New York State winning relay team. He was an intricate member of the Bellport High School varsity basketball team holding several records. Harold had the honor of being an All-Big Ten Selection Player, a USA New York State Player of the Year, a Bellport Football Hall of Fame Inductee and Harold has been inducted into the Long Island Hall of Fame. After leaving Bellport High School Harold received an athletic scholarship to play football at the University of Iowa where he started all four years and was appointed the captain of the team in his senior year.