

Greg Delimitros

Bellport High School Class of 1998

Greg Delimitros, who is entering his 20th overall season with the Philadelphia Eagles, was promoted to vice president of equipment operations during the 2019 offseason.

Delimitros is responsible for outfitting Eagles players, coaches, and staff, purchasing equipment and maintaining the team's locker room facilities at both the NovaCare Complex and Lincoln Financial Field. He also handles the transportation of all the team's equipment.

Under Delimitros' leadership, Philadelphia's equipment staff was named the 2019 New Era NFC Equipment Staff of the Year. Teams receive points toward the award for wearing the correct product based on the time of season and type of game.

Following the 2016 season, Delimitros was awarded the Whitey Zimmerman Award as the NFL Equipment Manager of the Year.

Delimitros originally joined the Eagles as an assistant equipment manager from 2004-11 and was elevated to head equipment manager from 2012-14. Prior to taking on his current title, Delimitros worked as the team's director of equipment operations from 2015-18.

A native of Medford, NY, Delimitros is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) and a board member of the Professional Football Equipment Managers Society (PFEMS). He earned a degree in business management from Stony Brook University in 2002 and an M.S. degree in athletic coaching education from West Virginia in 2003.

While at West Virginia, Delimitros served as a graduate football equipment manager for the Mountaineers from 2002-03. He was the head student equipment manager at Stony Brook from 1998-2002.
