

Douglas Wells
Bellport High School Class of 1965

Doug Wells is a 1956 graduate of Bellport High School. He was a three sport athlete playing baseball, soccer and basketball. In his senior year at Bellport High School he batted higher than Boston Red Sox and Baseball Hall of Famer Carl Yastremski who attended Bridgehampton High School. He served his country in the United States Army. Doug and his wife Marva who passed away are lifelong residents of Bellport. He is a member of the Bellport Methodist Church. In 1978 he served on the Board of Education for the South Country Central School District. Among many of his pastimes is antique collecting. Doug has volunteered his services through the years in the Republican Party and the Boys and Girls Club of Bellport. Recreationally Doug is the base singer for an a cappella group called Somewhere in Time. Still living in the house he grew up in he lives with his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
