

Paul Sparrow

Bellport High School Class of 1972

Paul Sparrow is a graduate of Bellport High School Class of 1972. Mr. Sparrow is a graduate of the University of California-Santa Cruz and received a master's of fine arts degree from Center of Contemporary Music at Mills College.

Paul Sparrow is the senior-vice president of broadcasting for the Newseum, the world's most interactive museum, where five centuries of news history meets up to the second technology on America's Main Street, Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Sparrow is an Emmy Award-winning television producer with more than 20 years experience. He has produced more than 300 hours of prime-time programming, hundreds of syndicated shows, 10 documentaries and several prime-time specials.

Mr. Sparrow produced and directed the award-winning prime special "Alcatraz-The Escape," in which a former inmate revealed for the first time the secret details of the most famous escape in history.

Paul Sparrow was the co-executive producer of "Americas Most Wanted." For his efforts on behalf of crime victims, Mr. Sparrow received the U.S. Marshals Service's director's award, their highest civilian honor.