NOCTI Activities

Congratulations to Peters Township seniors Eva Cibrone and Melina Burdelski for completion of their required 1250 Cosmetology hours which enables them to take the State Board exam for PA licensure.

Culinary Arts students recently toured and enjoyed a demonstration at CCAC. Pictured are: Hannah Abel, Destiny Bradbury, Tim Paradise, Jacey Plymire (A); Angelica Mick (B); Justin Dibble, Arrow Ellis, Ayden Hansen, Gus Livolsi (CM); Maleigha Funmanek, Stephanie Griffith, Vahn Matthis (CH); Vico Innocenti (FC); Ashlee Ealy, KiEnnah Mowery (McG); Angelea Balliard, Briget DiKenna, Tyler Lingis, Braydon Wiggins (PT); Damien Browning, Nathaniel Dougherty (W); Olivia Curtin, Isabella King (Homeschooled).

Cooperative Education – Electrical Occupations students Jacob Ivanac (B) and Joshua Houpt (CM) were on the job when Co-Op Coordinator Kim Anderson checked in on them. Jacob is working at Kosol Electric and Josh works at Aurora Electrical & Data Services of Pittsburgh. Pictured at right, McKenzie Hill (CH) was preparing for the next patient at Brady Physical Therapy. McKenzie is in our Sports Medicine/Rehab Aide program.

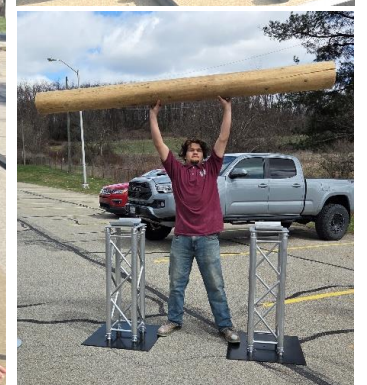

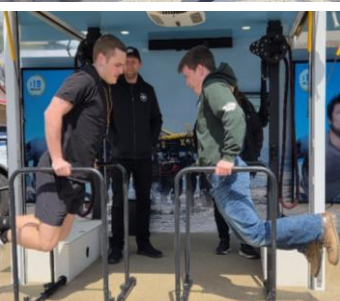

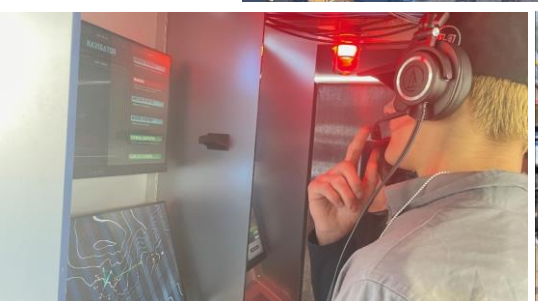

STUDENT SHOWCASE

Intermediate Unit 1 hosted the annual Student Showcase on Tuesday at the PennWest California Convocation Center. Area school districts and career and technology centers were represented by students and teachers who presented various talents and achievements.

Representing Western Area at the event were Cosmetology instructor Allison Scaife and students Jocelyn Greah (CM), Dannika Skolyak (B), Katelyn Kasper (CM), Ava Knieb (CM) and Mara Phillips (McG) who showcased their manicuring and hair styling techniques.

On Wednesday, the U.S. Navy showcased its new 'Strike Group' multi-scenario, mobile mixed-reality experience, which is designed to demonstrate the breadth and depth of Navy STEM careers and epitomizes the leading-edge technology and teamwork that are synonymous with Navy life. The Navy currently maintains 11 Carrier Strike Groups.
