March is Women’s History Month. Over the past month we have celebrated Women's History Month and honored the amazing contributions women have made throughout history by reading an inspiring quote every day in our daily bulletin. Our LAST Women’s History Month quote comes from Actress & Model, Marilyn Monroe, when she said, “Sometimes things fall apart, so that better things can fall together”.

Library News:

Wanted: Your OVERDUE Books! The library is on the hunt for past due books, and we need your help! Keep an eye on your inbox for an email with your overdue titles. If you need a little extra time, no worries—just visit a librarian to renew. Let’s get those books back where they belong!

Please leave your valuable items at home. The library staff receives several reports per day of missing Air pods, Nintendo Switches, and cell phones. These items should be left in your backpack or home. We are not responsible for lost items.

The library staff have been completely disappointed to find gum stuck under the library tables. This is especially frustrating because the library recently received new furniture, and it is unacceptable to see it being disrespected in this way. Not only does this create more work for our cleaning crew, but it is also plain GROSS and unsanitary. As a reminder, chewing gum at school will result in an immediate lunch detention.

If you have volunteered this past year, that’s April 2024 through March 31st, 2025, for 50 hours or more then apply for the Presidential Service Award! You'll receive an award, and hours will accrue into high school and can qualify you for a Lifetime Service Award. Come by the office to pick up an application today! All apps are due by Friday, April 11th.

The Lost and Found is overflowing with hoodies, water bottles, and other valuable items. Please stop by the shelf located in between the office and cafeteria to claim your forgotten items before they are all donated to charity over Spring Break in a couple of weeks.

After a long off-season, the 8th Grade Wiffle Ball Tournament of Donuts is finally underway. Opening day starts TODAY and will feature the Mathford Pickles vs Gru and the Mighty Minions. Come out, bring your lunch, and cheer on your favorite team!
