

This week's vocabulary:

1. groundbreaking: something that is brand new, original, and really important
2. development: an advancement or change
3. pioneer: a company that is first to introduce a new idea
4. skeptical: doubting that something is true

