

PTO Meeting 2-10-2025

Attendees: Jess Widen, Cat Eveland, Elyse Shorez, Chelsea Fadden, Stephanie Meyers, Anna Kayfes, Emily Henrich, Taylor Klemmensen

Spring Apparel Store February 24th- 7th

- Fitness Frenzy Shirts - Event on May 16th
- Reviewed apparel options
- Elyse and Heather will set up the Zeffy Store to open on the 24th
- Items returned 7-16th
- Corey send a 48 hour reminder for the spirit wear store we

Jamie Wittala- Teaching and Learning Department

- Wanting to share information about the READ act and what that looks like for students/families
 - Phase One: Pre K-6th teachers were trained (50 hrs)
 - Phase Two: will come as legislation rolls out which is training secondary teachers
- Functional Phonics and Morphology were integrated into our curriculum
- Reading and literacy in a great place at an elementary level good alignment between teachers and support staff
- Functional Phonics- Given to teachers scripted in terms of what to do when to slow down or speed up.
- The science of reading is 20 years worth of research in terms of what the science tells us is the best way to learn how to read.
- Looking at identifying where students are for next level
- Podcast Rec- Sold a Story

On book one school

- Good Feedback from parents and teachers
- Going to push McDonalds reading to the PTO page
- Going to add a post requesting Dog pictures
- Purchased remainder of series (2 sets) for library

Thank you for staff party donations

Book Bingo

- Volunteer email has been sent
- Reminder we will need to move tables this year
- Books are good

Professor Norm- April 28th He will meet with each grade level and individual classes covering both science and writing.

Penny Wars Week of March 31st

- MN Sports team theme
- Cat will set up Zeffy

Culvers 2/12

Turf Estimate- 60K to do turf in the playground area, checking out on asphalt and concrete prices